主席的話 Chairman's Statement

值1947年,香港鐘表業總會正式成立,至今業已六十七年。在歷屆主席的帶領下,總會一直持之以恆地推動鐘表工商業界發展,不但向同業提供創新工業技術,同時亦積極培育人才,胼手胝足地為業界爭取及維護權益。與此同時,本港鐘表業界全人亦勤勤懇懇、默默耕耘,終令香港鐘表業發展蓬勃,並且揚名四海。作為香港鐘表業總會第三十三屆董事會主席,我想藉此機會再次感謝各位業界的前輩,包括香港鐘表業總會的歷任主席和委員,全靠你們的膽識和遠見,香港鐘表業才能有今日的榮景。

細閱香港的發跡史,不難發現本地鐘表業與整個社會一同成長,更是唇齒相依。香港鐘表業自1930年發展至今,已成為本港四大輕工業之一,香港亦成為全球第二大鐘表生產地,去年出口總值逾770億港元,同時亦是瑞士鐘表全球第一大出口市場,去年出口至香港總額達380億港元,足見鐘表業對本港經濟舉足輕重。然而,市場瞬息萬變,在歐美市場需求放緩、內地生產成本上升和人民幣升值的影響下,香港鐘表廠商的利潤日漸減少;而在零售方面,消費者的購買意欲進一步放緩,據政府統計處資料,今年首6個月珠寶首飾、鐘表及名貴禮物的銷貨價值跌幅達28.2%。

但是,經濟周期的變化就如潮汐漲退,總是不間斷地出現;觀過往的經驗,香港鐘表工商業界早已明瞭挑戰和機遇往往是一體兩面。要把挑戰化為機遇,業界適宜從加強人才培訓、加強技術發展、控制營運成本和開拓新興市場四方面著手。為協助業內同仁到達上述的發展道路,香港鐘表業總會將發展方針定調為「3+3」,第一個「3」指教育、工業和商業,我們致力推廣鐘表行業及資助有志投身行業的年輕人,培育更多新一代接捧以振興業界;另外亦會舉辦各式大型的研討會及展銷會等,幫助業界拓展商機;同時更會積極與不同大學及科研院合作,期望為本地鐘表業界帶來更多技術突破,以

具體而言,去年香港鐘表業總會通過了「創新科技基金」及「工業貿易署中小企業資助計劃」,為業界作出了共同研究項目,包括與城市大學合作撰寫「鐘表行業打磨技術手冊」及生產出透明藍寶石薄膜,增強香港鐘表業競爭力。同時亦與香港生產力促進局合作編寫「香港鐘表業發展指南」,蒐集了各家鐘表企業的成功之道,務求啟迪同行;此外,為提升香港鐘表業的形象及知名度,我們繼續與香港貿發局合辦香港鐘表展,亦與香港旅發局合作舉行「新春國際匯演之夜」等。

種種努力之下,我們為業界定立了明確的發展方向,在風雲色變的環境中迅速作出回應,令業界得以繼續成長。同時,市場上的利好消息亦逐步浮現:歐美經濟復甦進展良好,香港貿易發展局預計今年本港出口可增長5%,鐘表作為其中一項主要出口貨品,勢必受惠;再加上內地電子商貿平台近年發展迅速,亦可為業界帶來嶄新的商機。

最後,香港鐘表工商業界作為香港社會的重要持份者, 我們在專注自身行業的發展前景之同時,亦應該關注整 體社會的長遠發展,為香港經濟注入更大的新力量,同 時為社會提供一份正能量。我相信,只要業界同仁繼續 同心同德、努力不懈,必定能為香港鐘表業及香港社會 寫下歷史輝煌的一頁。

主席的話 Chairman's Statement

It has already been 67 years since the Federation ▲of Hong Kong Watch Trades and Industries was established in 1947. Under the leadership of our previous chairmen, the federation has consistently promoted the development of the watch industry, not only to provide innovative, industrial technology, but also to nurture talent, toiling diligently for the industry in order to fight for and protect its interests. At the same time, our colleagues in Hong Kong's watch industry have worked diligently to create a booming watch industry in Hong Kong, which has brought us worldwide renown. As the 33rd Chairman of the Federation of Hong Kong Watch Trades and Industries, I would like to take this opportunity again to thank our industry predecessors, including successive chairmen and members of the federation. It is truly thanks to your courage and foresight that the Hong Kong watch industry is experiencing its current prosperity.

Continuous challenges

If one were to read the history of Hong Kong's rise to fortune, it would not be difficult to see the local watch industry and society as a whole growing together simultaneously – they are interdependent. From 1930 until present day, Hong Kong's watch industry has become one of our four greatest industry sectors and also the world's second largest producer of watches. With the total export value exceeding 77 billion Hong Kong dollars, we were the world's largest market for Swiss watch exports last year, with exports to Hong Kong amounting to 38 billion Hong Kong dollars, showing that the watch industry is truly pivotal to our economy. However, the market is constantly changing, and with slowing demand in Europe, rising production costs and the appreciation of the renminbi, Hong Kong watch manufacturers' profits are dwindling. In the retail sector, consumers' purchasing plans lead to a further slowdown. According to data released by the Census and Statistics Department, in the first six months of this year, retail sales of jewelry, watches and clocks, and other valuables dropped by 28.2%.

However, these changes in the economic cycle come in constant tides. From the standpoint of past experience, the Hong Kong business community has long been clear of both the watch industry's challenges and opportunities. We must turn challenges into opportunities in four different aspects: by equipping the industry via the strengthening of personnel training, by enhancing technology development, by control operating costs and by opening up new markets. To assist industry colleagues along the path of development, the Federation of Hong Kong Watch Trades and Industries policy will set the tone for "3 + 3". The first three refers to education, industry and commerce. We are committed to the promotion of the watch industry and aiding young people aspiring to join the industry in order to cultivate and help a new generation who will revitalize the industry. We will additionally organize seminars and a variety of large-scale trade fairs to help the industry to explore business opportunities, as well as actively cooperate with various universities and research centers, with expectations to bring about more technological breakthroughs to improve the local industry production levels. The other "3" is "look, listen, and support"; in order to lead the industry to move forward as an organization, we will take the initiative to refer to successful experiences from around the world and to visit different regions in order to attain new knowledge. The federation will continue to listen to the industry's voice in order to brainstorm cooperatively, and we commit to provide assistance to stakeholders with a view of strengthening the future of the federation and the dominant position of the industry.

Unlimited opportunities

Specifically, through the "Innovation and Technology Fund" and "Trade and Industry Department SME Funding Scheme" by the Federation of Hong Kong Watch Trades and Industries, the industry created joint research projects, including collaboration with the City University, and wrote "the watch industry polished technical manuals" and produced a transparent sapphire film, enhancing the competitiveness of Hong Kong's watch industry. Also, alongside the Hong Kong Productivity Council, we co-authored the "Hong Kong watch industry development guide" to detail the success of each watch company, with a view to inspire counterparts. Furthermore, to enhance the image and reputation of Hong Kong's watch industry, we continue to work with the Hong Kong TDC Bureau of the Hong Kong Watch & Clock Fair, organized in collaboration with the Hong Kong Tourism Board and held "International Chinese New Year Night Parade".

With these efforts, we have established a clear direction for the industry, to respond quickly to any change in environment, in order that the industry can continue to grow. Meanwhile, the good news is that the market has gradually emerged: there is progress of economic recovery in Europe and America, and according to the Hong Kong Trade Development Council, Hong Kong's exports this year are expected to grow by 5 percent. As watches as one of the major export goods, we are bound to benefit. All this coupled with the rapid development of mainland China's e-commerce platform in recent years will bring new opportunities for the industry.

Lastly, the Hong Kong watch industry with our important business and industry stakeholders play a crucial role in society. We focus on the development prospects of the industry itself, and we should also focus on the long-term development our community as a whole. We will inject force into Hong Kong's as well as the community to provide more positive energy. I believe that if our industry colleagues continue to work together, our efforts will enable us to write a glorious page in the history of the watch industry in Hong Kong and the Hong Kong community.

承先啟後 迎接鐘表零售業挑戰

Leveraging on the past for future business excellence: embracing challenges in the clock-and-watch retail sector

朱俊文先生

Tai Hing Watch Co.

四十年歷史的大興表行,一直扎根荃灣區,成立以來幾許蜕變,由二手表店奠基,發展至多品牌表行,到今天成為品牌專賣店,他們一直順應潮流,終成為口碑載道的鐘表零售商。如今表行由第三代主理人朱俊文(DICKSON)掌舵,面對風雲色變的鐘表零售市場,他與父親緊密溝通,透過不斷轉型,決心帶領家族生意更上層樓。

位於荃灣鬧市的大興表行,是勞力士與帝舵的專賣店,走入店內,發現裝潢極之簇新,招牌十分亮眼,難以想像這裡已有四十三年歷史。「大興表行是在1971年成立的,由我爺爺開辦,之前他做二手表生意,之後才轉型賣新表。」Dickson是這個鐘表世家的第三代掌門人,他在2008年從加拿大大學畢業,應父親之邀回港加入家族生意。「我是十分願意回來的,哪怕在大學修讀商科並非為繼承家業,但畢竟在港找工作不算易。而當我一路在表行工作,對鐘表的興趣便油然而生。」

他說,其父在9歲時便在他爺爺店內幫忙賣二手表,在鐘表零售界裡耳濡目染,功夫都是浸淫而來。「我唸書時都會回公司打暑期工,但都是處理簡單的文書工作,因此在我08年加入公司,便要從低做起,包表、銷售、搬貨都要做,最基本的都要學識。」

約1年後,他已全盤掌握公司運作,轉而參與更多 營運及決策事務,直至3年後弟弟和姐姐相繼加入 公司分擔前線任務,他因而能花更多時間做好管理 者的角色。「現在爸爸每天都會回來店舖,跟同事 及客人聊聊天。他今年62歲了,卻沒想過退休,角 色就好像顧問一樣。」父親時時在背後監督,不會 感到壓力嗎?「不會,反而有疑難時能跟他商量。 最初都試過不同意他的意見,最後卻往往給他説對 (笑)。|

6年前他加入大興表行,公司在荃灣有3家分店,在 大埔區亦有一家,店裡售賣多個品牌。6年下來慢慢 調整,現在只留下眾安街一家分店,營運模式亦改 為品牌專賣店。「轉型是在2011年,當年坊間開品 牌專賣店蔚然成風。現在回看,這決定是必需的, 只因鐘表業瞬息萬變,如果不及時轉型,就會被淘 汰。」他透露,轉型為專賣店亦關係到一些鐘錶品 牌的發展策略。與這些大品牌合作,他說零售商必 須遵守他們規則。「例如一定要符合他們的形象, 售價不能隨便調低,售貨員必須有禮等。」

但Dickson亦坦言,做專賣店往往受制於鐘表品牌的發展策略,而市面舖位租金高昂,單靠一、兩個品牌來支撐生意,難度越來越高。「租金確是最大難題,業主知你賣表,租金便會定得很高。我們在70年代座擁8家分店,到現在餘下一家,業主是爸爸兒時好友,租金加幅不會超過10%,生意不好如03年亦會減租。所以我認為與業主保持良好關係很重要,最好凡事有商量。」

高昂的租金是香港所有零售商的夢魘,若果想改善生意,就要做好服務。「我們的回頭客佔三成,亦有熟客介紹其他客戶,現在做生意已不是單純做買賣,而是推銷整套服務,建立口碑除了靠歷史,就是看你的售後服務。」眾所周知,自由行旅客帶來的銷售額正在縮減中,對他們有何影響?「荃灣區一向沒有太多自由行,我們的客路以本地客及熟客為主,內地客只佔三成,所以影響不是太大。」

雖說內地客不是他們的主要客路,但他對員工的要求是必須懂得普通話。除此之外,員工必須接受鐘表品牌提供的專業訓練。「前幾年市道好,其他表行都高薪挖角,試過個多月內走了五位員工!沒辦法,我唯有多點到門市幫手。」員工流失率高也是零售商時刻要面對的難題,他們現時有十四位員工,其中兩位卻是自他爺爺一代便在店內工作,名副其實是「老臣子」。「他們都屬退休年紀了,跟他們合作沒困難,最重要是尊重他們,就算意見相左亦如是,他們便自然會尊重你。從他們身上我學會很多,他們亦樂意指導新人。」 establishment over 40 years ago, Tai Hing Watch Co. has witnessed tremendous changes from its inception as a second-hand watch shop, through its development into a multi-brand watch store and to its present status as an official brand retailer. Continuously capturing the latest trends, Tai Hing eventually rose as a watch-and-clock retailer with excellent reputation. To date, the company is steered by its third-generation leader, Dickson Chu. Despite the perpetual evolution of the watch-and-clock retail market, he is determined to promote the family business to a yet higher level through his regular discussions with his father as well as a constant readiness for business transformation.

包括老員工在內的企業持份者,如供應商、熟客等,Dickson皆與他們建立起良好關係,實有賴於早年他由低做起,摸清各部門的工作,才令生意接棒期更為順利。展望未來,他積極考慮在旅遊區開設店舖,也可能回到多品牌表行的營運模式,一切有待市場的動向。對內方面,他亦希望弟弟和姐姐能更快上手公司業務。「當年爸爸對我也蠻兇的(笑),絕對是嚴格訓練,所以現在我對弟弟和姐姐一樣嚴格。」

Situated in the bustling Tsuen Wan district, Tai Hing stands as an official retailer for Rolex and Tudor watches. As one enters the shop, the extremely new furnishings and glittering signboard which come into view will make it difficult to imagine that the business has already been running there for 43 years. "Tai Hing Watch Co. was founded by my grandfather in 1971. At first, he was dealing in second-hand watches, but later on he switched to selling new ones." Having graduated from a university in Canada in 2008, Dickson accepted his father's invitation to return to Hong Kong and join the watch-and-clock family business, and has thus become its third-generation proprietor. "Even though my business studies at the university were far from intended for succession to this business, I was more than willing to come back here as it was after all not so easy to find a job in Hong Kong. And as I carried on with my work at the watch shop, my interest in watches and clocks just grew naturally."

Mastering shop operations by starting from lower positions

According to Dickson, his father had started to help his own dad sell second-hand watches in the shop at the mere age of 9, and gained great expertise through his longstanding, hands-on immersion into the watch-and-clock retail sector. "Back in my school days, I would work at the company during summer vacation but all I did was just simple word processing. That's why when I joined the company again in 2008, I had to start off from low-level positions and master all the basics, which includes watch packaging, sales and even goods carriage."

Only about 1 year had elapsed before he acquired a full understanding of the company's operations and became more involved in operational matters and decisionmaking. 3 years later, with his younger brother and elder sister joining the business by undertaking part of the frontline tasks, it became possible for him to devote more time to his function as the Corporate Manager. "Now, my dad comes to the shop every day to chat with the colleagues and customers. He hasn't given a thought to retirement even though he's 62, and his role here is just like the consultant." Would he not feel some pressure with his father "supervising" all the time? "Not at all, his presence actually allows me to speak with him about any problems I may have. I do sometimes disagree with his views in the beginning, but very often I will just concur in the end (smile)."

When he entered Tai Hing Watch Co. 6 years back, the company had 3 branches in Tsuen Wan and one more in Tai Po which sold a variety of brands. In the course of time, its corporate landscape has been gradually transformed such that only the branch at Chung On Street now remains in operation, for which the business model of an official brand retailer has been adopted. "This change of business model was undertaken in 2011, when official brand retailers were booming in the market. Looking back, I believe this decision was crucial simply because the watch-and-clock industry is ever-changing. Failing to transform your business model at the right moment would mean being kicked out of the business."

watch-and-clock brands also come into play regarding the transformation into an official retailer, commenting that retailers will need to abide by the rules of these large brands if they are to collaborate with them. "For example, retailers will definitely need to conform to their image and may not cut selling prices just the way they wish. The sales team will also be required to show good courtesy."

However, Dickson also said candidly that official retailers are commonly constrained by the development strategies of watch-and-clock brands, and that the difficulty of supporting their own business just with one or two brands never stops rising against the backdrop of high market rents for retail spaces. "It's indeed the rents that present the greatest challenge. Any landlord will charge you a very dear rent once they know you're selling watches. We used to have 8 branches back in the 70's, but only have one left now. The landlord is a good childhood friend of my father's, and so the rent increase will never exceed 10% and we are even offered rent reductions when our business slacks off, just as what happened in 2003. Therefore, I think it's highly important to maintain a good relationship with the landlords so that it's possible to talk things over."

Maintaining strong relationships with stakeholders

Whereas high rents are nightmarish for all Hong Kong retailers, good services represent the key to business improvement. "Repeat customers account for 30% of our clientele and some patrons will also introduce us to new customers. Nowadays, running a business is no longer the mere act of completing a deal, but is instead the offering of a whole array of services. Building your own repute is a matter of long-standing presence, but it also depends on your after-sale services." As many people are aware, the contribution to sales revenue made by tourists arriving in Hong Kong under the Individual Visit Scheme (IVS) is decreasing. How does that impact the company? "Tsuen Wan has never really been overwhelmed with IVS tourists. Our customers are mainly local citizens and patrons, with mainland China customers making up only 30% of our clientele. That means we are not so strongly affected by this drop in IVS sales revenue."

Even when customers from mainland China do not constitute their group of major customers, Dickson insists that his staff should be able to speak Mandarin. Apart from this, they are required to receive professional training offered by the watch-and-clock brands."A few years back when the sector was faring well, other watch shops were snatching people from us by offering high salaries. At a certain point, we literally lost 5 staff members within less than 2 months! There was nothing we could do about it and I would just have to help out more often in the retail unit." High staff turnover is another challenge constantly faced by retailers. They currently have 14 employees at Tai Hing, of whom 2, rather surprisingly, have been working there since the old days when Dickson's grandfather was leading the company and are genuine "veterans". "Both of them have reached the retirement age and there's no difficulty at all working with them. The essential thing is you need to respect them, even when there's a divergence of opinions. In this way, they will simply respect you in return. I've learnt a lot from them and they are very willing to offer guidance to new recruits."

Thanks to Dickson's entry into the company as a low-level staff member in the early years which enabled him to have a firm grasp of the work of various units, he has built strong relationships with such corporate stakeholders as veteran staff, suppliers and patrons, which in turn has been conducive to the smooth operation of the business during the post-succession period. Looking forward, he is keenly considering opening shops in the tourist areas and might also restore the former business model of a multi-brand watch shop, all such moves pending further market developments. Internally, he also hopes that his younger brother and elder sister will be able to familiarise themselves with the company's business at a faster pace. "My dad used to be rather harsh on me (smile), and the training I received was absolutely rigorous. That's why I now expect my brother and sister to meet equally rigorous standards."

He humbly said he still has "a lot to learn" regarding how to run a good business, adding that fortunately, he does not suffer from too much stress from his father who has not set any specific goals for him. "But as a key member of the family business, I genuinely feel a sense of mission to make things better." So, would he in turn ask his children to succeed to this business later on? "I'm still single. Of course, I would hope that my child will take it over if I had one, but this is something that can't be forced upon them, just as my dad didn't force it upon me back then." Very true: How could one possibly bring a family business to a yet higher level if they did not have this sense of mission or the readiness to assume responsibilities?

Proactive in business transformation for shaping a new manufacturing landscape

力從事表殼生產的金源集團,成立於1963 年的老香港。與大部分香港製造業一樣, 金源經歷了香港經濟起飛、產業結構轉型、內地 改革開放等等大事,順應潮流,於80年代北上設 廠,規模亦越來越大。半世紀之後,香港製造業 又面對新的挑戰,金源第二代領導班子胸有成 竹,全因他們對行業前景深入瞭解與積極進取 及恪守六大核心價值。

金源集團的廠房設於中國中山市,現時約有5,000多位員工。 集團行政總裁陳號鏇先生說, 金源是他爸爸白手興家創立而成。「他對鐘表很有興趣,在 廣州時跟師傅學鐘表維修,來

港後在表行工作,再後來自己創業。」陳生於80 年代從加拿大留學回來並加入公司,其時金源集 團已有一定規模,(例子是曾獲日本知名鐘表品牌 賞識,得以派員於70年代到日本進行技術交流)。 「回來初期與爸爸共事了一段時間,當年他還會參 與重大決策,約7、8年後,爸爸便完全淡出公司業 務。加入公司的早期,先瞭解前承的文化,承先啟 後,進而引入國際化的企業管理模式和建立今天的 作為企業第二代管理人,他經常被問及是否被迫繼續家業。「回來是我的決定,因為爸爸創立了一個很好的業務平臺,為何不將它發揚光大!其實我爸爸很開通的,有段時間他見我做得辛苦都會體諒和勉勵我,甚至叫我別做了!公司的六大核心價值,都是從爸爸的特質啟發而來,分別是客戶導向、追求卓越、創新思維、團隊精神、關心尊重,最後但最重要的,是道德誠信。道德誠信聽起來不著邊際、難以量度,卻是最有影響力的。一家企業能持續發展或是曇花一現,就看其誠信。|

眾所周知,現時在內地設廠的香港製造商面對很大 挑戰,他透露,廠商除了面對連年增長的最低工 資,勞工短缺也是一大問題。「記得十多年前有位 日本客戶説羨慕我們在中國設廠,因為有很多廉價 勞動力。但是我當時的回應是:早晚我們都要面對 你們的問題,今天,證明當時的預測是正確的。| 要應付成本上升,提高生產效益,轉型至高增值的 產業,甚至開拓OBM都是良好的方法。「但做成表 即是與客戶直接競爭,有違我們恪守誠信的原則。 故此在手錶產業,我們一直堅守做零部件專業代工 商,追求精益求精,為客戶提供解決方案;但在其 他產業則積極探索建立自主核心技術,甚至開拓自 我品牌(OBM)。」他説,金源的成功要素是堅毅 不屈、恪守原則。「正如我爸爸開辦金源前都經歷 了數次挫敗。若企業能堅守核心價值,幹甚麼生意 都可以成功。」

如是者,他們現時除了主要的表殼業務,還分別從 事光通訊及機械零件生產。「開設光通訊業務是在 2000年,開業不久便悉逢科網泡沫爆破,很多人建 議我們『壯士斷臂』,但金源的成功源於堅毅。於 是我們一路堅持,如今已成為其中一家走在前線的 獨立港資光通訊連接器製造商。」除了轉型,搬去 成本更低的地方設廠也是不少廠家的方法,但陳生 則不以為之。「搬廠除了投資高,也會令員工及技 術流失。畢竟中國發展太快,連高級奢侈品牌都進 駐三線城市,就算你真的搬入內陸,都只是延遲了 問題,而非解決之。上解決問題的方法,他認為是 跟從日本和德國等先進國家的成功經驗,推行自動 化及致力提高生產力。「十年前的香港及中國一直 恃住廉價勞工的優勢,少有如日本或德國廠家追求 高生產力的精神。但如今環境已經不同,整個業界 都必須通過提升生產力來求存。因此,我們7年前已 成立自動化部門,生產自己的機器,逐步地將一些 工序自動化。

除了營運上的改革,他亦積極完善公司管理,希望 推動企業至另一高峰。「並非每個決定都能獲得所 有人支持,就如自動化,當初亦有人覺得沒必要。 如果你的立場夠堅定,就算別人最初不信服,往後 都可能妥協;相反若你不堅持,就無法建立管治的權 威,甚至整個管理層會瓦解。」

除了立定心志、強化管治,他亦希望令金源擺脱 「家族企業」的形象,廣納賢德、唯才是用。「雖 然我都是家族成員,但我不想將公司定位為家族企 業。很多美國、歐洲的成功家族企業,都經歷過這 階段,將公司提升為專業經理人管理的集團企業。 我相信的是meritocracy,即賢者居之。無論在人才 的招聘或提拔,個人的能力和誠信都是首要考慮的 條件,而非親疏關係」

陳生的父親是創業者,擁有鐵一般的意志,無畏屢次挫敗,終於打下金源堅實的基礎;陳號鏇先生則是個改革者,承先啟後,勵精圖治,以無比決心改革公司管治模式及延續未來發展。

stablished in the 'old' Hong Kong in 1963, Kam Yuen Group specialises in the production of watch cases. Similar to most manufacturing companies in Hong Kong, Kam Yuen witnessed such major developments like Hong Kong's economic boom, structural transformations of the industry, and mainland China's Open Door Policy reforms. In line with the general trend, Kam Yuen Group set up its factory in mainland China in the 80s and has been expanding its scale. Half a century subsequent to its inception, the manufacturing industry in Hong Kong is again facing new challenges. Kam Yuen's second-generation leadership team has, however, a card up its sleeve - simply because they have a deep understanding of the industry's prospects, hold a proactive and assertive attitude, and abide by its six major core values.

Commitment to six major core values

Based in Zhongshan, China, the factories of Kam Yuen Group now employs over 5,000 staff members. According to the Group's CEO Mr Francis Chan, Kam Yuen Group was founded by his father who started from scratch in his entrepreneurial endeavours. He had a keen interest in watches and clocks, and learnt from a master how to repair them back in his days in Guangzhou. Later on, he moved to Hong Kong where he worked at a watch company and subsequently started his own business.' After completing his studies in Canada in the 80s, Francis returned home to join the company at a time when Kam Yuen Group had already attained a considerable scale. (This is exemplified by the fact that the Group was given the opportunity to despatch its staff to Japan for technical exchanges in the 70s upon gaining appreciation from a well-known Japanese watch brand.) 'After coming back, I worked together with my dad for some time in the beginning and he would be involved in making critical decisions back then. After around 7 or 8 years, he completely retired from the company's business. During my early years in the company, I first familiarised myself with its past heritage, based on which I gradually introduced a forward-looking, internationalised corporate management model, and built up today's management team.'

Being the second-generation leader of the enterprise, he is very often asked whether he was compelled to pursue the family business. It was entirely my own decision to come back. Given that my dad had created such a great business platform, I thought to myself: why not try to let it flourish and shine further? Actually, my dad was very open-minded. There was a period when he realised I was overworked, and he would show understanding for me and offer me encouragement. He even told me to give up the job at one time! The six major core values of the company were all inspired by my dad's virtues, namely customer orientation, pursuit of excellence, innovative mindset, team spirit, care and respect, and the last and the most important, ethics and integrity. Ethics and integrity may sound somewhat irrelevant or difficult to gauge, but is indeed the most influential element. It is essentially the integrity of an enterprise that determines whether it achieves sustainable development or fails the test of time.'

It is widely known that the Hong Kong manufacturers which have factories in mainland China are currently facing substantial challenges. Francis expressed that apart from the ever-rising minimum wages, these manufacturers are also suffering from the big problem of labour shortage. I remember there was a Japanese manufacturer who said over fifteen years ago that he envied us having a factory in China because of the abundance of inexpensive workforce there. However, what I said to him in reply was: sooner or later, we will also have to face the problems you are facing. The predictions I made back then have been proved correct by today's circumstances.' Moving towards a high value-added approach or even developing an OBM business model represent good solutions for coping with rising costs and enhancing production efficiency. However, producing finished watches would mean entering into direct competition with our customers, which goes against our integrity principle. That's why within the watch industry, we have always been committed to our OEM business for parts and components through striving for excellence, and offering solutions to our customers, whereas in other sectors, we have been proactive in exploring and creating proprietary core technologies and have even developed our own brands as an OBM.' He added that an unyielding character and commitment to its principles are the key elements for Kam Yuen's success. 'Actually my own experiences are more or less similar to my dad's: he also met with a number of ups and downs before setting up Kam Yuen. An enterprise can become successful in any trade if it can really abide by its core values.'

Advancing corporate transformation

As such, apart from their principal business in watch cases, they are currently engaged in the production of optical communications and mechanical parts as well. 'We launched our optical communications business in 2000, and encountered the dot-com bubble burst soon afterwards. Many people suggested that we should simply 'take a bold, expeditious action' to cut our losses, but unyieldingness lies at the core of Kam Yuen's success. And so, we just persisted all along, and have now become manufacturers of optical fibre interconnection solution.' Aside from business transformation, relocating factories to places with lower associated costs is also considered a solution by many manufacturers. Francis, however, holds quite a different view: 'Not only does factory relocation involve a high investment, but it also leads to the loss of staff and technologies. After all, China's development is just too guick and high-end luxury brands are now entering even the Tier-3 cities there. You will just be deferring and not resolving the problem even if you really move to the inland regions.' He believes that the key to solving the problem lies in implementing automation and pursuing productivity enhancement by drawing on the successful experience of technologically advanced countries like Japan and Germany. 'Ten years back, Hong Kong and China were relying too much on their inexpensive workforce as a competitive edge, and lacked the initiative to constantly boost productivity like the Japanese and German manufacturers. But now the landscape has changed, and all manufacturers in the sector have to raise their productivity to survive. That's why we established our automation unit as early as 7 years ago to produce our own machinery, with which we have been gradually automating some of our processes.'

one of the state-of-the-art, independent local-funded

Apart from operational reforms, Francis has also been actively perfecting Kam Yuen's corporate management in an attempt to bring business growth to another peak. 'Not every decision was supported by everyone. For example, in the case of automation, some people found it unnecessary at the outset. However, if your position is firm enough, other people may still compromise after casting their initial doubts. Conversely, if you don't persevere, you won't be able to establish your governance authority, and the management may even collapse altogether.'

專訪 Interview

Aside from setting ambitions and goals as well as strengthening governance, he also wishes to play down Kam Yuen of its 'family business' image by openly attracting talents on the basis of meritocracy. 'Although I am one of the family members myself, I don't want to position the company as a family business. Many successful family businesses in the US and Europe have actually gone through this stage in which the company was upgraded to a corporate group managed by professional leaders. What I believe in is meritocracy, which means whoever is competent will get the job. Whether we are dealing with the recruitment or promotion of talented individuals, the most crucial considerations are their personal capabilities and integrity, but not the closeness of our relationship with them.'

Being a start-up entrepreneur who had a willpower as strong as steel and the courage to confront good and bad times, Francis' father eventually laid solid foundations for Kam Yuen's future growth. In contrast, Francis is a reform-maker who is determined to revolutionise the company's governance model, and safeguard its sustainable development by both drawing on its heritage and pursuing excellence and sound management.

瑞士工藝一機械表機芯專業售後維修工作坊

Professional Study on Swiss Mechanical Movements in the After Sales Service

港在2013年進口瑞士腕表高達4,125百萬瑞士法郎,而中國進口瑞士腕表在2013年亦達1,400百萬瑞士法郎。由於銷售量龐大,市場對售後維修服務一直存有很大需求,而香港鐘表業總會(下稱總會),年來在業界多次反映下,對此問題十分關注。在總會多番努力下,終在今年成功邀得有多年鐘表教授經驗的SAMUEL LLOREDA先生從瑞士來港教授正宗瑞士機械機芯的維修技術,開辦「瑞士工藝一機械表機芯專業售後維修工作坊」,為培育本地鐘表維修專才立下重要的里程碑。

中國古代典故中有「愚公移山」的故事,實可用來 比照今次開辦計劃的創舉。據稱,今次計劃籌劃多 年,在一眾大智若愚的「愚公」,此包括鐘表業人 才培訓基金監察委員會主席曾國雄先生及各委員的 戮力推動下,經多次在瑞士面試才招聘到合適的專 家導師。曾國雄主席説:「計劃源於2007年,總會 藉創會60周年,於慈善晚會籌得180萬港元,悉數捐 予職業訓練局,設立『鐘表業人才培訓基金』,並 將李惠利分校時計學實驗室命名為『香港鐘表業總 會專業發展中心』。多年來, 我與幾位委員不斷與 瑞士不同單位洽商,終於在本年落實聘請在瑞士擁 有40多年鐘表維修及鐘表教授經驗的Samuel Lloreda 先生來港任教。」歷時7年,經過集資、佈線、游 説、選才,終於在今年推出計劃,一切得來不易, 曾主席亦笑稱他們完成了「不可能的任務」。「這 有賴大家的支持,包括總會永遠名譽會長孫秉樞博 士大力推動,最後才可成事。|

導師Samuel Lloreda:學員水平極高

特此走訪Samuel Lloreda先生,當天他正在授課, 只見學生們埋首拆裝機械表機芯,十分專注。「我 認為這個課程對行內人非常有用,只因課程讓他們 重溫傳統瑞士裝拆機芯的過程。一些基本功例如入 油,行內人幾乎每天都做,卻可能忘記細節。入油 的方法、手法、份量,都要跟足傳統,份量也要拿 捏得宜,絕不能讓油跡沾到周邊的位置,這些是職 業上的基本認識。」Samuel細細解釋。「整潔十分 重要,絕不能有指印、油印、塵埃。無論你從事甚 麼工作,都必須重視基本,修理鐘表一定要細心、 整潔,這是自我省察,自我完善。」

Samuel對同學的質素大為讚許,稱他們無論在學習態度及接受能力上都處於高水平。「在瑞士任教時,有些學生是青少年,上課外還要聽流行曲、追女仔(笑),學習態度自然有所不足。反觀這裡的學生都很投入,渴求新知,這亦成了我授課的動力。」兩地學生的區別,卻突顯了兩地政府對人才培訓的差別。「在瑞士,培育鐘表維修人才是由國

家推動,並有很多私人企業贊助,整個計劃是由私 人企業及FH(瑞士鐘表工業聯合會)設計,並有專 業人士評核考試,所有工具由學校借出,年青人學 費由國家支付,年長學生的學費也由國家支付一 半。」總括來說,是瑞士著重要訓練這方面的人 才,香港卻沒有這氣氛。

對於學校的設施及總會的安排,Samuel坦言十分滿意,一切無從挑剔。而從宏觀角度看,他認為若業界希望向鐘表維修發展,必須繼續經營。「設施要更新,也要添置新器材。同學須要進一步在擺幅(Amplitude)上深入研究和了解,打磨上也要更進一步。」

學員Ada本身是鐘表維修員,維修手法都是從香港師傅習得,並未受正宗訓練。今次課程,為她帶來很大得著。「以前的手法較隨意,例如入油,以前會入多一點,讓表行久一點,現在瑞士導師卻教我們適可而止,因為要顧及美觀。上課後,我也更易發現機械表的問題,也學會更細心。此外,在這行工作接觸行家的機會始終較少,藉這次機會,我認識了很多行內人,大家可以交流心得,一起討論平時遇到的問題。」作為行內人,她亦有感現在新入行技師不足,都是老一輩的技師為主。「就像我在公司已工作4年,仍有人問我:『技師在哪裡?』大眾仍覺得只有老一輩的人是技師,很少年青人入行,所以我認為這類課程應該開辦更多一些。」

主席曾國雄:新入行前景不俗

對於鐘表維修業存在青黃不接的問題,曾主席認同這隱憂已存著多年。「香港和中國對瑞士腕錶的交易量龐大,除了貴價表,也有很多人購買中、下價表,售後服務及維修的確需要大量人才。然而,在香港只有鐘表銷售及市場推廣的人才訓練,修理人員卻嚴重不足,只靠坊間的零星短期課程,及僱員再陪訓局的技能提升計劃課程,人才完全不敷應用。」由於本港缺乏相關人才,很多學員未畢業已被取錄,發展前景和收入都不錯,確實是值得年輕人加入的行業。

n 2013, the import of Swiss watches in Hong Kong amounted to 4,125 million Swiss francs, while that in China also reached 1,400 million Swiss francs. As the relevant sales volume is immense, the market demand for after-sales repair services remains huge. The Federation of Hong Kong Watch Trades & Industries Ltd. (the FHKWTI) and its industry peers have been highly concerned about the issue of a shortage of highly-trained repairers in the market. After considerable efforts, the FHKWTI finally managed to invite Mr Samuel Lloreda from Switzerland to come to Hong Kong this year to conduct a "Professional Study on Swiss Mechanical Movements in the After Sales Service". Through the workshop and with his many years of teaching experience in clocks and watches, Mr Lloreda instructed participants on the formal repair techniques for Swiss mechanical movements and laid down a significant milestone in the education of local repair talents for clocks and watches.

Among ancient Chinese legends is the story "The Foolish Old Man Removes the Mountains", which is indeed comparable to the feat of actualizing the workshop. The project has been planned for several years and was proactively advocated by a number of metaphorically "foolish old men" who are much cleverer than they may seem, including Mr Jerry Tsang, Chairman of the Watch & Clock Industry Human Resources Development Foundation Steering Committee and the various committee members. The appropriate expert instructor was recruited only after various interviews conducted in Switzerland. "The scheme has its origins in 2007, when the FHKWTI celebrated its 60th anniversary. It raised from a charitable banquet 1.8 million Hong Kong dollars, which was entirely donated to the Vocational Training Council for establishing the Watch & Clock Industry Human Resources Development Foundation and for naming the horological laboratory at IVE (Lee Wai Lee) as the Professional Development Centre of the FHKWTI. Over the years, I had been constantly negotiating with various parties in Switzerland together with several committee members on this project. This year, we finally made the definitive decision of recruiting Mr Samuel Lloreda, who has over 40 years of experience in the repair and teaching for clocks and watches in Switzerland, to be our instructor in Hong Kong," said Chairman Tsang. The whole process lasted for 7 years from financing to planning, network building, lobbying and talent selection, before the scheme could be launched this year. All this came from very hard work, and even Chairman Tsang said with a grin that they had completed the "mission impossible". "For our final success, big applause should go to everyone for their support, including to our Permanent Honorary President Dr Samson Sun for his great contribution."

Instructor Samuel Lloreda: students show extremely high standards

On the day of interviewing Mr Samuel Lloreda during one of his lessons, the students were seen busy removing or installing mechanical watch movements with great concentration." I believe that this course is highly useful for practitioners in the industry, simply because it enables them to brush up on their skills regarding the formal process for installing or removing Swiss watch movements. Some basic techniques like oil application are performed by practitioners almost daily, but they may actually forget about the detailed steps. The method, approach, quantity and the like should all conform to conventional oil application. You have to be cautious about the quantity used so that oil stains should never be present in the surrounding areas. All this is professional but basic knowledge," explained Samuel meticulously. "Tidiness is of utmost importance, and no fingerprints, oil marks or dust is ever allowed. Whatever work you do, you must always keep an eye on the basics. Repairing clocks and watches calls for attention to details and tidiness. This is both self-reflection and self-improvement."

Samuel highly appreciates the quality of his students, expressing that both their learning attitude and readiness to accept new things are strong. "Back in the days when I was teaching in Switzerland, some of the students were adolescents and they would listen to pop songs and chase after girls (smile) even in class, which means their learning attitude was obviously unsatisfactory. In contrast, the students here are really eager for new knowledge and show great dedication, which has also given me motivation in my teaching." The difference between the students in the two places has directly highlighted the difference between the two governments in their approach to talent training. "In Switzerland, the nurturing of repair personnel for clocks and watches is promoted by the state and sponsored by numerous private enterprises, and the whole scheme is designed by private enterprises together with the FH (Federation of the Swiss Watch Industry). Professionals are responsible for assessing the trainees and all the tools are lent by schools. The tuition fees of young people are paid by the state, and those of elderly students are also half-paid by the state." Overall speaking, Switzerland lays emphasis on the training of talents in this respect, while Hong Kong does not have a similar atmosphere.

With regard to the school facilities and the arrangements made by the FHKWTI, Samuel expressed frankly that he is very satisfactory and has no complaints at all. And from a macroscopic perspective, he believes that the industry must continue its efforts if it wishes to develop the clocks and watches repair sector. "The facilities will need to be updated and new equipment acquired. Students will have to study and learn about amplitude in greater depth, and advance themselves in relation to polishing."

Student Ada: highly beneficial course

Ada, one of the students, is a clock and watch repairer who had never received formal training and learned her repair approach from Hong Kong masters. She finds the current course highly beneficial. "My past approach was more discretionary. For example, I would apply more oil so that the watch could run longer. But our Swiss instructor now teaches us to apply an appropriate quantity because of the need to care for the appearance. Through the lessons, I have become more ready to spot problems in mechanical watches and have learned to be more detail-minded. Besides, I have come to know many industry practitioners in the sector whom I seldom have chance to meet before, such that we can now exchange ideas and discuss any problems we encounter on a daily basis." As an industry practitioner, she also has the impression that there is a lack of technicians joining the sector which is mainly filled with senior technicians. "Take me as an example: I have been working at my company for 4 years, but still people would ask me, 'Where's the technician?' People still feel that only older people can be technicians, which shows that very few young people are joining the sector. That's why I believe that some more courses of this type should be offered."

Chairman Jerry Tsang: promising prospects for new-joiners

Regarding the shortage of younger professional staff in the clocks and watches repair industry, Chairman Tsang agrees that such pitfall has presented itself for many years. "The turnover for Swiss watches is huge in both Hong Kong and China. Apart from high-end products, many people are buying medium-range and low-end watches, which means there is indeed an immense demand for staff in after-sales and repair services. However, in Hong Kong, we only have training for clock and watch sales and marketing, while that for repair staff is alarmingly insufficient. Just with those Skills Upgrading Scheme courses offered by the Employees Retraining Board and some individual short-term training courses, the supply of relevant professional staff is completely out of tune with the demand." As Hong Kong lacks relevant professionals, many students receive job offers even prior to completion of their studies and enjoy attractive career prospects and income. This is indeed a sector which deserves some serious consideration by interested young people.

Looking forward, Chairman Tsang hopes that more similar courses will be offered, and that in addition to efforts made by the sector, more subsidies will be offered by the government. "We hope to see more systematic courses with continuity which will enable young people to join the sector. I believe that it would be a piece of great news for many industry practitioners and new-joiners if a school could be established and named after the FHKWTI."

1. 塗層技術的發展

近二十多年來,先進表面工程技術得到了迅速的發展,從而可賦予金屬、陶瓷、聚合物以及複合材料等更多獨特的表面性能與塊體材料相結合。許多應用實例表明,表面改性技術不僅能解決零部件的失效問題,還能增加產品附加值,提高生產效率。

在為數眾多的表面改性技術中,塗層技術尤其引人注目。塗層是指鍍在基體材料表面的、性能有別於基體的表層。這一表層的產生可通過改變表面化學成分或沉積一層同質/異質材料而實現。改性的目的有多種,例如表面裝飾、耐腐蝕、耐磨損、減小摩擦、隔熱、電絕緣以及獲得其它與基體不同的特性。

塗層技術覆蓋的範圍很廣,包括傳統的塗裝、電鍍、熔焊、噴塗、熱/化學處理(如滲氮和滲碳等),以及較新型的激光熔覆、物理氣相沉積(PVD)、化學氣相沉積(CVD)、離子注入和離子束混合等。大部分氣相沉積過程在真空室內進行,對周圍環境不產生污染,因此可替代一些目前仍使用的非環保的鍍膜技術如電鍍,展示出廣闊的應用前景。

2. 先進塗層應用研究實驗(ACARL)

在香港創新科技署及工業界的資助下,香港城市 大學於2001年成立了先進塗層應用研究實驗室 (ACARL)。ACARL由一支從事跨學科研究的團隊組 成,宗旨是致力開發表面塗層新技術,改良材料 特性,促進技術向工業界轉移,開發新的塗層應 用領域,讓本地工業受益。ACARL同時也為工業界 提供技術培訓,內容涉及塗層技術、表面工程、摩 擦學、金屬切削以及薄膜材料分析測試等。

事實上,香港城市大學早在1996年已開始合成金剛石及相關超硬材料的研究工作,在基礎和應用研究方面均頗有建樹。配備了多種PVD和CVD鍍膜設備(例如磁控濺射、磁過濾弧和電子迴旋共振等),以及薄膜測試設備,用於塗層材料的合成與分析研究。在2002年,ACARL再次獲得創新科技署資助,進行超硬納米複合塗層(硬度超過40 GPa)的應用研究。納米材料技術是二十一世紀的一個嶄新研究領域,旨在通過控制材料的超微細結構(納米量級)來改善材料原有的特性,或者賦予材料全新的性能。納米

複合塗層其中一個重要應用是保護切削刀具並改良 切削效能,這類塗層是目前在極端磨損條件下應用 的更為理想的材料。在刀具上使用納米複合塗層, 可實現傳統硬塗層無法達到的幹法高速切削,同時 解決因使用昂貴的切削冷卻液所帶來的環保問題。 目前, ACARL已成功開發出一系列硬質/超硬塗層, 例如,TiN、TiAIN、TiSiN、TiBN、TiAISiN、CrAIN、 CrSiN、金剛石及固體潤滑塗層等。經過多年的努 力,我們獲得了大量有關氣相沉積固體塗層的基 礎知識和經驗,從中發展出新材料概念,並在納 米尺度上設計複合物。除了實現TiN系列、CrN系 列以及類金剛石 (DLC) 系列等塗層的工業化生產以 外,ACARL的研究人員對納米多層膜、納米複合膜 以及多組元膜等進行廣泛和深入的研究,探討其沉 積條件、結構、成份和特性的相互關係以及理論模 型,這標緻著ACARL在塗層技術發展的前沿領域正 與世界同步。除納米塗層外,我們還開展憎水性塗 層和不粘模塗層等新課題的研究。ACARL的進一步 發展有賴於政府及工業界的支持。如要了解更多關 於ACARL的詳細資料,可瀏覽以下網址http://www6. cityu.edu.hk/acarl °

3. 鐘錶業目前面對的問題

鐘錶零售業及製造業多年來一直是香港工商業的重要支柱之一,目前香港已成為世界第二大鐘錶出口地,同時也是瑞士手錶的最大進口地區。隨著中國經濟迅速發展,對鐘錶的需求量與日俱增,內地消費者越來越追求產品的品牌和質量,因此擴大內需市場已成為香港鐘錶界的一個龐大商機。然而,香港鐘錶界正面臨著許多困難與挑戰,例如競爭加劇、人民幣昇值、勞動力短缺和原材料價格上漲等,為了保持並擴大市場佔有的份額,有必要通過技術創新來提高生產效率和產品質量、創造新品牌以及增加產品的附加值。

手錶作為日常使用的精密計時儀器和藝術飾品,能 延長其使用壽命、提高精準度以及改善美觀度是十 分關鍵的,特別是對於高端手錶和珠寶首飾,其外 觀質量尤為重要。金屬錶的表面,包括錶殼與錶 帶,通常需要打磨拋光到很高的光潔度,但在使 用過程中容易出現劃痕。手錶的錶鏡也存在著這一 問題。另外,鍍金的手錶目前很流行,尤其是對於 內地的消費者更是如此。在純金中加入了少量其它 金屬例如銅、鋅和銀等,可產生極受歡迎的玫瑰金 和粉紅金等色澤。但是,金作為一種非常柔軟的材 質,在外力作用下很容易變形和磨損。此外,當接 觸到化學物質、廢氣和手汗時,鍍金層往往因抗氧 化性和耐腐蝕性不足而失去原有光澤甚至變色。總 而言之,表面磨損和腐蝕的問題多年來一直困擾鐘 錶及珠寶界,至今仍未得到解決。

傳統的表面處理技術有電鍍和有機塗覆等,但已經 不能滿足現代化的設計需要。近年來等離子體技術 和納米材料的興起為零部件及產品的表面改性提供 了可行的新途徑。例如,氣相沉積氮化物和碳氮化 物塗層可產生不同的顏色,因而適合在手錶產品表 面上製備裝飾性保護塗層。盡管物理氣相沉積(PVD) (如電弧蒸發和濺射)屬環保工藝,並已成功應用到 鐘表業,但仍存在固有的缺點。所沉積的塗層不可 避免地帶有一些結構缺陷如針孔或大顆粒,嚴重影 響膜面質量。此外,由於沉積粒子運動的定向性質 (陰影效應),在複雜形狀的工件上難以製備均匀的 塗層。PVD的原材料 (氣相物質) 來源於固體靶材, 故沉積粒子在向基體輸運過程中基本上以直線形 式飛行,繞鍍性較差。與之相反,化學氣相沉積 (CVD) 過程發生在一個體積範圍內,氣相物質不是 通過固體材料轉化而來,因而分佈較均勻,在基體 表面通過化學反應生成固體薄膜。因此,CVD工藝 在三維基體上鍍膜具有更好的表面覆蓋能力,更適 合在非平面上製備均勻塗層。傳統的CVD工藝製備 硬塗層需要高的沉積溫度 (500-800°C) ,容易引起 鋼材及一些金屬的變形和軟化。

因此,很有必要開發新型的氣相沉積技術在鐘錶的 表面上製備一層均勻、緻密而又透明的保護塗層, 並保持原有的色澤和光潔度。

4. 透明保護塗層的技術要點

光學透明度是本研究的基本要求之一。透明材料相對於可見光而言(波長380-750 nm)具有較寬的光學帶隙(E_g > 3.3 eV)。這樣,可見光光子(能量1.6-3.3 eV)因其能量小於帶隙寬度,不被材料吸收而直接通過,故呈現透明性。例如玻璃在可見光範圍內是

透明的,因為光子沒有足夠的能量來跨越帶隙並把電子激發到更高能態的導帶。

香港城市大學從事金剛石和類金剛石 (DLC) 薄膜的研究已超過十年。然而,CVD沉積純金剛石膜 (Eg=5.5 eV) 需要基體溫度高於600°C,這對許多工業應用而言是受到限制的。DLC比金剛石膜容易製備,應用範圍更廣,其光學帶隙寬度取決於薄膜的鍵合和化學成分,一般在0.5-2.0 eV範圍,而折射率(n) 通常為1.8-2.3。含氫的類聚合物膜在可見光範圍內可以比DLC更為透明 (Eg>2.5 eV),但是其硬度低,難以作為耐磨塗層使用。不含氫DLC的光學帶隙寬度通常小於2 eV。因此,根據光學帶隙分析,金剛石和類金剛石 (DLC) 薄膜並不適合用作透明塗層使用。除此之外,由於碳原子擴散機制的影響,這類塗層在鋼以及許多金屬基體上的附著強度往往較差。

金屬氧化物是指氧元素與另一種金屬元素經反應生成的二元化合物,大部分的金屬氧化物都是離子晶體 (由離子鍵互相結合的固態物質),其硬度高,化學穩定,而且透光度高 (具有寬的光學帶隙)。例如,石英 (SiO₂) 在用作鈍化和保護方面是一種理想的材料。它具有良好的熱穩定性和化學穩定性,並在高溫下保持非晶態,具有最大的光學帶隙 (~9 eV)。其它氧化物如MgO的帶隙寬度為7.4-7.8 eV。對於這些寬帶隙材料,在整個可見光光譜範圍內只有極少的光吸收。材料的光學性能可以通過結構設計 (如製備納米多層膜或減少雜質) 和工藝優化來進一步改善。

5. 我們的研究計畫

在2013年,香港城市大學的研究計畫"應用於鐘錶製造業的零缺陷塗層及其技術的開發"獲得了香港創新科技署的批准和資助(GHP/048/12) (CityU No. 9440098)。該研究屬粵港科技合作資助計劃中的平臺項目(由政府主導),目前仍在進行當中。來自香港鐘表業總會的十二家公司踴躍參與,並以工業合作夥伴的身份贊助該研究項目。

為項目提供贊助的公司有(排名不分先後):雅佳離子鍍(香港)有限公司、丁峰國際有限公司、柏萊化工有限公司、應通企業(香港)有限公司、香港森

豐真空鍍膜有限公司、美時創意國際有限公司、格 林控股有限公司、敦贊國際有限公司、忠時實業有 限公司、信心金屬表面處理有限公司、東美錶業有 限公司和高頓斯有限公司。

本研究計畫旨在透過使用新型的氣相沉積技術在鐘 錶的表面上製備一層均勻、緻密而又透明的保護塗 層,使表層硬度提高到藍寶石硬度以上,從而大大 增強手錶表面的抗磨損性能,令手錶經久耐用。另 外,塗層還能有效阻止由於氣候變化、海水和出汗 等對錶表面的腐蝕,保持原有的亮麗色澤,甚至使 外觀更顯優雅和高檔。

到目前為止,通過分析各種氣相沉積技術的優缺點,設計並製造了一臺低溫CVD鍍膜設備,可在200°C以下溫度在三維複雜形狀基體上鍍製均勻薄膜。塗層工藝以及薄膜的結構與性能的深入研究正在進行當中。

CVD是反應物質在氣態條件下通過化學反應生成固體薄膜的各種工藝的總稱,本質上屬於原子範疇的氣態傳質過程,近年來發展成為製備無機材料的新技術,可用來合成多種金屬、合金、陶瓷和化合物塗層。沉積過程中,化學氣相物質或氣態前驅體進入真空室/反應室,通過原子、分子間的化學反應,使氣態前驅體中的某些成分分解,而在基體上形成所需的固體薄膜。由於前驅體由氣體分子組成,將填滿反應室所有空間,與基體的幾何形狀無關,不存在陰影效應。由於繞鍍性能好,適合塗覆各種複雜形狀的工件。前驅體在基體表面的化學吸附確保了塗層的附著力,而表面控制的反應與生長使塗層均勻且無針孔等缺陷。此外,CVD工藝還可通過等離子體來增強,對調節薄膜的結構與性能提供了更大的靈活性。

由於所有的沉積過程在密封的真空室內進行,塗層系統還配有微粒過慮器和反應氣體尾氣處理裝置等,操作將是安全的,對周圍環境不會排放出有害物質。

圖1所示的是由納米壓痕法測量的鍍膜Si(100)基片的表面硬度與壓入深度的關係(載荷 0.1-1 mN)。塗層的表面硬度達到~30 GPa (超過藍寶石硬度)。作為比較,純金剛石和石英的硬度分別為100和10 GPa。

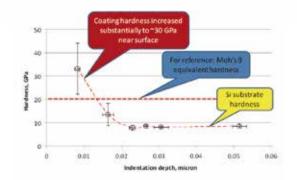

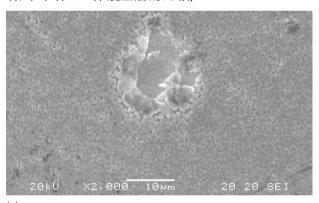

圖 1 鍍有透明膜的Si(100)基片的表面硬度與壓入深度的 關係

該項目完成後,預期我們能找到解決鐘錶產品表面 磨損和腐蝕問題的有效途徑,從而提升產品品質, 讓整個行業受益,保持在國際上的領先地位。

6. 小結

設計並製造了一臺採用改良CVD工藝技術的鍍膜設備,可在複雜形狀基體上製備均勻塗層。CVD塗層與金屬基體的附著力良好,塗層表面硬度超過藍寶石,化學穩定,在可見光範圍內透明。初步的研究表明,塗層具有硬度高、耐磨、耐腐蝕和抗氧化等優點。

在此衷心感謝香港鐘表業總會以及各工業合作夥伴對該研究項目的大力支持。該項目獲得了香港創新科技署的資助 (GHP/048/12) (CityU No. 9440098) (粵港科技合作資助計劃)。特別鳴謝香港鐘表業總會會董麥世枝先生在項目申請和工業試驗中所給予的支持和一切幫助。

bstract: Surface hard coatings are versatile and can be applied to many industries in which wear resistant surfaces are required. Materials used for watches, such as stainless steel, gold and glass, are easily subjected to damage by scratches and wear. The improvement of scratch and wear resistance by surface coating is a desirable added-value to the watch products. This new protective coating will lower down the yield loss during production for the component making and complete watch assembly factories. In addition, the successful application of the coating can solve one major argument between wholesalers and retailers due to surface scratches. Furthermore, as the surface barrier, the coating can provide protection against corrosion and oxidation to improve the product quality, durability and desirability. Therefore, the application of hard and transparent coatings will be an ideal approach to enhance the competitiveness of watch products.

1. Development of coating technologies

There have been many advances in the surface engineering technology in the last 20 years, which enables the design and manufacture of metallic, ceramic, polymeric and composite systems with unique combination of bulk and surface properties. It has been realized by many successful applications that the surface modification approach can not only solve component degradation problems but also can provide added value and improved productivity.

Of many surface modification processes, the coating technology has attracted much attention. A coating may be defined as a near-surface region with properties different from the bulk or base substrate. This near-surface region may be produced by altering the surface material or by depositing the same or a different material on the substrate surface. This is done for a variety of reasons, such as improved appearance, enhanced corrosion resistance, increased abrasive resistance, reducing frictional energy losses, providing thermal or electrical insulation, or attainment of some desired properties not found in the substrate materials.

The coatings technologies cover a wide range of technical disciplines, including the traditional technologies of painting, electroplating, weld surfacing, plasma and hypervelocity spraying, thermal and thermochemical treatments such as nitriding and carburising, newer combinations of laser surfacing, physical vapor deposition (PVD), chemical vapor deposition (CVD), ion implantation and ion mixing, etc. Most of the new coating processes are performed in vacuum, which can replace some environmentally incompatible technologies such as electroplating used today, and will create more industrial markets in the future.

2. Establishment of ACARL/CityU

With the support of the Hong Kong government and local industries, the Advanced Coatings Applied Research Laboratory (ACARL) of City University of Hong Kong (CityU) was established in December 2001. ACARL is a multi-disciplinary laboratory that serves as the pilot facility to adapt surface coatings & technology to various materials to improve their performance, helps boost technology transfer and develops new applications in surface coatings to benefit local industries. ACARL also provides opportunities for engineers through technical workshops to receive education and training in advanced coatings systems, surface engineering, tribology, metal cutting, and thin film characterization, etc.

In fact, the research of diamond and related materials in CityU began in 1996. Since then, both basic and applied researches in this field have multiplied. Novel PVD and CVD facilities such as magnetron sputtering, filtered arc, electron cyclotron resonance (ECR), and many other thin film/interface/surface characterization facilities are in place and available for synthesis, analysis and testing of the coatings. Since 2002, ACARL has started to study the super-hard materials such as diamond and nanocomposite coatings as well as their industrial applications.

The material nano-technology is a highly innovative area in the 21st century, which seeks to improve the functionality and properties of materials as well as create new functions by controlling materials structure on a super-fine scale. One of the potential applications of the nano-composite coatings is to protect cutting and drilling tools. The tools treated with these new coatings are able to operate at previously impossible high dry cutting speeds, and so can solve important problems caused by expensive and environmentally hazardous cutting lubricants. Now a series of hard/ superhard coatings such as TiN, TiAIN, TiSiN, TiBN, TiAISiN, CrAIN, CrSiN, diamond and solid lubricants, have been developed successfully in ACARL. In addition, ACARL has gained more and more fundamental knowledge for the synthesis of coatings from the vapor phase that can enable the development of new material concepts and design of composites at a nano-sized level. The research achievements in nano-composite materials indicate that ACARL is joining the world in advancing the frontiers of coating technology. The further development of ACARL relies on the supports from government agencies, the industry consortium, and other sponsoring organizations. 3. Problems encountered in the watch industry

The watch retail and manufacturing industry has been one of the most important economic pillars in Hong Kong for many years. Now Hong Kong has become the world's second largest watch exporter. At the same time, Hong Kong is also the largest importer of Swiss watches. With the rapid growth of economy in China, the demand of watches is increasing rapidly, and the mainland consumers are pursuing the brand and quality of the watch products. Therefore, to expand the domestic market becomes the huge opportunity for Hong Kong's watch industry. However, the industry is facing a number of challenges such as tough competition, RMB appreciation, labor shortage, and rising cost of raw materials, etc. In order to maintain and expand the market share, it is important to increase the productivity, upgrade the product quality, create new brand, and increase the added values of the watch products by means of technical innovations.

As precise time-measuring instruments and art decorations, it is of crucial importance to improve the service life, precision and aesthetic appearance of watch products. In particular, the aesthetic quality is one of the most essential elements for high-end watches and jewelry. The surfaces of metallic watch parts, including watch cases and bands, need to be polished to a high cosmetic finish in most cases. However, scratches appear easily on the surfaces during usage. The glass surfaces are also facing the same problem due to the poorer scratch resistance. In addition, the gold plated watches are very popular nowadays, especially for the mainland consumers. Gold can be added with small amounts of other metals such as copper, zinc and silver, etc, producing other famous colors like rose gold and pink gold. As a soft material, gold can be deformed and worn out easily under external forces. Further, when contacting with chemical substances, exhaust gases or hand sweat, the gold-plated surface layers can lose the original brightness or color owing to the limited oxidation and corrosion resistance. The wear and corrosion issues have been puzzling the watch and jewelry industries for years and remained unsolved yet.

The tradition surface treatment techniques include electroplating and organic coating, etc. However, they can no longer satisfy the stringent requirements of modern designs. Recently the rise of plasma technology and nano-materials provides a feasible approach for the surface modification of components and products. For example, some nitrides and carbonitrides can be deposited in different colors, so they are very suitable as decorative and protective coatings on watch products. Although the physical vapor deposition (PVD) techniques such as arc evaporation and sputtering are environmental friendly and are quite successful in the preparation of such hard coatings, they possess some intrinsic drawbacks. Some structural defects such as pinholes and droplets will inevitably be incorporated into the deposited coatings, deteriorating the surface quality. In addition, the coatings are not homogeneous onto the objects with complicated shapes due to the directional nature of the deposited particles (i.e., the shadowing effect). In the physical methods, the starting material is always transported into the gas phase from a solid-state target, so PVD is a so-called 'line-of-sight' deposition technology. On the contrary, chemical vapor deposition (CVD) is a volume deposition technology, in which coating materials are deposited from the gas phases by chemical reaction on the substrate surface. In this case, CVD will provide better coating coverage onto 3D objects, and thus is the promising method in the modification of non-planar surfaces. Conventional CVD processes need high temperatures (e.g., 500-800 °C) during deposition to form hard coatings, which may cause deformation and softening of steel and some metal materials.

For this reason, it is necessary to develop a new vapor deposition process to apply dense and homogeneous protective coatings on the watch surfaces, without changing their original colors and surface finish.

4. Technical consideration for transparent protective coatings

Optical transparency is one of the essential requirements for the protective coatings to be developed in this project. Transparent materials possess band gaps (E_g) with energies corresponding to wavelengths which are shorter than the visible range of 380-750 nm (i.e., $E_g > 3.3$ eV). In this case, visible light photons with energies (1.6-3.3 eV) below the band gap are not collected by these materials and thus visible light can pass through. For example, glass is transparent to visible light, because the photons do not have enough energy to bridge the band gap and excite the electrons up to a higher energy level in the conduction band.

CityU has studied diamond and diamond-like carbon films for more than 10 years. However, the CVD deposition process for pure diamond films (E_g =5.5 eV) normally requires substrate temperatures in excess of 600°C, which can be prohibitive for many industrial applications. DLC films are far easier to grow than diamond and have been applied more widely. The optical band gap of DLC is usually in the range of 0.5-2.0 eV, depending on bonding and composition. The refractive index (n) is normally within 1.8-2.3. Hydrogen-rich polymer-like films can be more transparent in the visible region (E_g >2.5 eV). However, such soft films cannot be applied as wear resistant coatings. For comparison, non-hydrogenated DLC films have band gaps below 2 eV. Therefore, diamond and DLC films are not good candidates for industrial uses as transparent coatings. Their adhesion to steel and many other metal substrates is poor due to the carbon diffusion effect.

lonic oxides are usually hard, optically transparent, and chemically inert, due to their large band gaps between the valence and conduction bands. For instance, quartz (SiO₂) is a promising material for passivation and protection. It is thermally and chemically stable, and remains amorphous up to high temperatures. Also, it has the largest band gap (~9 eV). Other oxide films such as MgO have band gaps of 7.4-7.8 eV. For these large band gap materials, there is very little optical absorption over most or all the visible range. The optical properties can be improved further by proper structural design (e.g., nano-laminates, fewer impurities) and optimization of processing conditions.

5. Our research plan

The research project of "Development of Zero Defect Coating Technology for the Watch Industry" (GHP/048/12) (CityU No. 9440098) was granted by Innovation and Technology Commission (ITC) of HKSAR in 2013, under the Guangdong-Hong Kong Technology Cooperation Scheme. The project is still in progress. 12 companies from the Federation of Hong Kong Watch Trades & Industries Ltd have agreed to participate and sponsor the project.

The sponsors are listed as follows in no particular order:

- · Ion Technology (Hong Kong) Ltd
- Ting Fung International Company Ltd
- · Pino Aliprandini (HK) Ltd
- · Ying Tong Enterprise (Hong Kong) Ltd
- · Hong Kong Sen Fung Vacuum Plating Company Ltd

The objective of the present development program is to prepare a homogenous, dense and transparent coating to protect the watch surfaces by means of a new vapor deposition technique. As a result, the surface hardness can be approaching or even superior to that of sapphire, which will improve substantially the wear resistance and endurance of watch surfaces. In addition, the dense and continuous coating can prevent the surface corrosion caused by some external factors such as climatic change, sea water and sweating, thus keeping the original brightness and luster, or even making the appearance more elegant and upscale.

In this study, a pilot facility based on low-temperature CVD for thin film deposition on 3D objects has been designed and set up, after considering the advantages and disadvantages of different coating technologies. The coating processes as well as the structure and properties of the deposited films are being studied in details.

CVD is a generic name for a group of processes which involve depositing solid films from gaseous phases, and has become an extremely versatile process to synthesize almost any metallic or ceramic compounds. During deposition, chemical vapors or gaseous precursors fill into the vacuum chamber, and then react and/or decompose more actively on the substrate surface, producing the desired solid thin films. As the precursors are gas phase molecules, they fill all space independent of substrate geometry and thus do not require line-ofsight to the substrate. Chemical adsorption of precursors with the substrate surface provides excellent adhesion, and the surface-controlled reaction and growth allow the uniform film deposition free of surface defects such as pinholes. In addition, the CVD process can be enhanced by plasma, which provides more flexibility to tailor the structure and properties of the deposited films.

As all the deposition processes are carried out in a sealed vacuum chamber, and there are particulate filter traps and precursor destruct traps installed in the coating system, the operation will be safe and will not produce harmful substances discharged to the environment.

Fig.1 shows the surface hardness of coated Si(100) wafer as a function of indentation depth (loading 0.1-1 mN) in the nano-indentation measurements. The coating hardness is increased to ~30 GPa near the surface region (exceeding that of sapphire). As a reference, the hardness of pure diamond and fused quartz is 100 and 10 GPa, respectively.

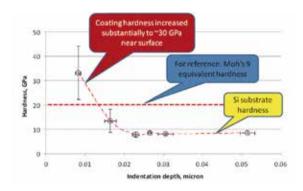

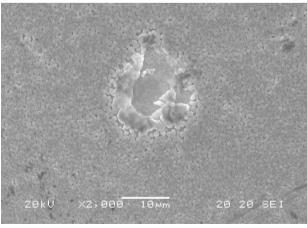

Fig.1 Surface hardness of coated Si(100) wafer as a function of indentation depth.

Preliminary studies have shown that the CVD coatings are adherent to metallic substrates homogeneously, and they are chemically inert and optically transparent in the visible light range by controlling the film thickness. The AuCu alloy coatings are widely used in the watch industry for decoration. However, this kind of coatings is not wear and oxidation resistant at all. Discoloration becomes a very common phenomenon in daily uses. With the application of the protective CVD coating, the color of the AuCu coating doesn't change anymore, even after heating at 300 °C in air for 1 hr. Fig. 2 shows the surface morphology of the AuCu coatings with/without the protective CVD coating after oxidation in air.

Upon completion of the project, it is expected that we can find an effective method to solve the wear and corrosion problems for the watch products, which will upgrade the product quality and eventually benefit the watch industry in maintaining its global leading position.

6. Brief summary

A pilot coating system for 3D objects based on the modified CVD process has been designed and fabricated. The CVD coatings are adherent to metallic substrates. The surface hardness of the coatings can exceed that of sapphire, and the coatings are chemically inert and optically transparent in the visible light range. From the preliminary studies, it has been shown that the CVD coatings are hard, as well as wear, corrosion and oxidation resistant.

In addition to watches and jewelry, the applications of the coatings may be further expanded to other areas in the future, such as scratch-resistant wear protection coatings for sunglasses, ophthalmic lenses, IR windows or lenses of Ge, ZnS and ZnSe. Also, the coatings can be applied as antireflective coatings with controlled index on Ge and GaAs infrared optics, as well as for silicon solar cells. Other industrial uses include passivative or protective coatings for molds, optical fibres and optoelectronic components (e.g., GaAs laser diodes) against diffusion and degradation by oxygen and moisture. Biomedical applications can also be anticipated because the coatings are chemically inert and bio-compatible.

智能會將手錶引向何方? Where Will Smart Function Take Watches to?

這裏明確一個概念,如今市場上廣受關注的智能手 錶,確切説應該是智能可穿戴設備,所謂可穿戴設 備就是指利用人們日常穿戴如手錶、眼鏡、手環、 服飾甚至鞋襪等進行智能化設計開發而推出的設 備,只是目前智能手錶已初露鋒芒,相對於使用者 一天平均要掏出150次的智能手機,更具便攜性。 智能性與便攜性的融合使得智能手錶具備了初步的 概念,形成了一定的市場規模,並引領了其他品類 的創新,而多數其他類別目前仍處於僅僅停留在概 念的階段,使得智能手錶成為了舉旗人,社會關注 的焦點,諸如三星、SONY、LG等國際巨頭均已有 智能手錶面世,傳説中的IWATCH也一直都是大衆 關注的焦點話題,與其説對IWATCH,還不如説對 智能手錶,人們充滿了無限的遐想與期待,智能手 錶正引領著各大品牌的創新浪潮, IMS RESEARCH預 估2016年可穿戴設備出貨量將達到1.7億部,2018年 出貨量將達到4.85億台,而中國市場規模,FROST & SULLIVAN預測2015年預計達到26.1億人民幣, 2012-

2015年複合增長率為30.9%,由此可見智能手錶的 未來發展潛力。

也有手錶行業內人士認為,智能手錶發展說明手錶功能將跨向多用途發展,包括拓展SOCIAL MEDIA的功能應用,並與手機分工,這僅僅是一個應用層面的問題,在此之前,手錶貌似已經受到了手機的衝擊,但手錶行業並未像人們擔心的那樣受到巨手機的衝擊,而是依然發展強勁,傳統手錶經過漫長的歷史積澱,已賦予了文化、藝術、品味等諸多精神層面的內涵,自然有著深厚的用戶基礎和擁躉,恰似電影與電視的對比,智能手錶與傳統手錶並不存在顛覆和取代的關係,二者完全可以協調發展。也有部分人士認,智能手錶也許僅僅是一個潮流,其還是有螢幕小、電池短等瓶頸問題難於突破,現階段只

是智能手機的一個延伸端,新奇大於實用性,並未 形成氣候,如果短期內不能有所創新、有所突破, 明確自身定位的話,很容易由於最終缺乏市場支撐 而退出歷史舞臺。

而另一種行業外的聲音則認為,變是唯一的不變, 社會在變,消費者更在變,如今社會品牌過剩,供 大於求,這是一個顧客為王的時代,一切以顧客需 求為導向,吸引力才是生產力,智能手錶雖然仍叫 手錶,但其含義已經遠遠超出手錶本身的概念,你 可以把它叫做繼電視、電腦、手機之後的第四螢幕 爭奪,也可以叫做腕間領地的爭奪,如今的重點在 智能,而不是手錶,他們更關注的是顧客體驗、服 務,而不僅僅是手錶本身,説的極端一些,這些公 司或者巨頭,他們完全有能力將手錶免費送給消 費者,因為他們賣的不是產品,而是產品背後的 社交、服務和體驗,或者説是那些使用者的大數 據,如今的消費者熱衷網路,喜歡社交媒體,他 們有表達、分享的意願,需要得到朋友的認可、互 動和讚揚;再進一步説,智能手錶的銷售渠道也非 僅限於傳統的手錶渠道,他們在電器店、手機店、 運動品店甚至網路渠道均可以銷售,與消費者接觸 面更為廣泛,這再次印證了重點是智能,而不是手 錶本身,它滿足的是消費者社交、服務等心理方面 的需求,當然這一切建立的前提是,智能手錶,或 者説可穿戴設備,要有一個創新性的突破,更加獨 立,更加貼近消費者的需求,專家普遍認為運動、 健康、醫療和娛樂是智能手錶未來發展的方向,因 為人們愈加需要社交,愈加關注健康,如果有諸如 監測心率、血糖、熱量攝入,分析汗液,健康預警 等充分理由讓消費者把智能手錶留於腕間的話,那 麽勢必會對傳統手錶產生衝擊,因為腕間的領地只 有那麽一塊兒, 試想你和三位熱衷運動及健康的社 交朋友,你們不僅會都受其中一人影響佩戴智能腕 表,而且很大可能也佩戴同一品牌,現代社會行業 的顛覆者往往來自於跨行業。

關於智能手錶的未來,很多IT人士認為它將成為移動互聯網的新入口,將引領個人局域網的全面升級,智能手錶可以使人類脱離電腦和智能手機的限制,催生新的移動互聯網入口。目前,依賴智能手機的互聯網路還比較局限,智能手機不但充當聯網

的伺服器,還充當輸入和輸出終端;而智能手錶將 改變這一現狀,今後智能手機僅充當聯網伺服器, 而智能手錶將成為移動網路輸入和輸出終端,可以 解放雙手,只要通過擺動手臂以及肌膚、汗液的實 時監測,就可以通過智能手錶將輸入到網路,當然 分析的結果也可以通過智能手錶及時提醒和呈現, 它將改變人類的生活方式。

市場研究機構TRANSPARENCY MARKET RESEARCH研究表明,醫療是智能手錶最具前景的應用領域(其次是健身和娛樂);智能手錶將為醫療器械行業帶來一場革命(微型化-便攜化-可穿戴化),不但隨時隨地可以監測血糖、血壓、心率、血氧含量、體溫、呼吸頻率等人體健康指標,還可以用於各種疾病的治療,如電離子透入貼片可以治療頭痛,包括磁療和電療等一系列療法,當然這一切都有賴於技術的支援。如此説來,智能確實是一個跨行業寬泛的概念,智能手錶也存在對其他行業帶來變革的無限可能。

嚴格來說,手錶行業是個傳統行業,尤其近幾十年來在技術上並無革命性的創新,更多的仍然是文化和傳統的積澱及傳承,很好的詮釋著對時間的承載,世界上幾乎找不出第二種商品像手錶這樣最高端與最低端價格所相差的乘級倍數,而且均有市場立足點,這說明手錶並不是單純的高、大、上,而是具有極廣涵蓋度的品類,所以無論智能對於手錶未來是機遇,還是挑戰?我們都應持續的關注與了解,聚焦其與消費者需求和市場特點的結合,這樣才能在未來,堅持住變中的不變,把握好那不變中的變。

With the rising of computers, smart phones and wide spread of social media, the future of watches seems to be arousing unprecedented interest and imagination. A considerable number of people, both within and outside the industry, believe that smart watches would be the darling of the next wave of mobile internet development following smart phones. Some even boldly predict that smart function will have a serious impact on the watch market, and may even completely change the way that the watch industry currently operates. Innovation always comes with controversies. But where will the smart function lead watches to? Opportunity or Challenge? Watches have witnessed the time, and now time will in turn show the future of the watches.

Nowadays, smart watches are under the category of smart wearable devices, which refers to clothing and accessories, such as, watches, glasses, bracelets, footwear, with electronic technologies or computerinig functions incorporated. In terms of convenience, smart watches are much better than smart phones, since the users do not need to take them out from the pocket 150 times a day on average. The fusion of smartness and portability leads to the rising popularity of smart watches which have achieved a certain market share. They are leading the innovation also in other categories of products though mostly still in conceptual stage. A series of smart watches launched by some international giants including Samsung, Sony and LG have grapped the world's attention. The rumored iWatch, or might as well say smart watches, have become a hot topic of public concerns arousing infinite imagination and expectation. IMS Research predicted that 171 million wearable devices will be shipped out by 2016, and 486 million by 2018. In 2015, the China market for wearable devices will be worth over 2.61 billion yuan according to a recent report from market research and analysis firm Frost & Sullivan, with projected compound annual growth rate of 30.9% from 2012 to 2015, reflecting the huge potential of smart watches.

However, smart watches are still facing problems and bottlenecks. They are currently only an extension of smart phones, a mobile phone companion at best. Their functions are far from enough with insufficient exclusive applications. What is more, they suffer from low battery life, poor user experience and low market penetration rate. All these problems give rise to different opinions towards the future of smart watches. Mr. Geoffrey Kao, Chairman of The Federation of Hong Kong Watch Trades and Industries Ltd., considers the smart function itself a concept for cross-industry application. Specific to the watch category, smart function is better to be built into some parts of the watch, such as clasp, caseback, etc., so that smart function can be integrated into traditional watches, and achieves the synergy effect of 1+1>2. Traditional watches require innovative technology while smart function needs to expand its presence on the wrist, which is why smart watches are getting so much attention.

Some within the watch industry believe that smart watches will lead the development of watches to a multi-functional direction, including the feature of social media and showing a clear division with mobile phones, but this is just on an application level. Before this, the sale of watches seemed to be heavily affected by the wide usage of mobile phones; nevertheless, watch industry did not suffer as much as people had feared. In fact, it gained a strong momentum. With historical accumulation, traditional watches have been endowed with diverse meanings in terms of culture, art, taste and other psychological dimensions. Thus, they have a solid base of loyal users. Like movies to TVs, smart watches will never replace traditional watches, and they can fully complement each other. Another group in the industry believes that smart watches may be a passing fad as they still face a series of problems ahead, such as small screen and low battery life. Currently, they are just an extension of the smart phones attracting curious, adventurous consumers. Without breakthrough and a clear market position, they will finally fail due to the lack of market support.

Another point of view from outside the industry holds that the society is fast changing and so are the consumers. With the abundance of brands and oversuply of products, the customer is king. Customers' need and demand determine what will be put into production. Smart watch is still a watch, but its significance goes beyond the traditional one. You can either consider it as the emergence of the fourth screen, after TV, computer and mobile phone, or the fight for the limited space on your wrist. Currently, the issue is on smart function rather than replacing watches. Consumers are more concerned about user experience and service, not just about telling time. They have a strong willingness to express and share, and are eager to interact, be recognized and praised by friends. To be more extreme, those enterprises or giants are fully capable to give away their smart watches to customers for free, because they are not selling the products but the sociality, services, user experience behind, or making money from the big data to be more specific.

Furthermore, the sale of smart watches is not limited to traditional channels. They can be sold in electrical appliance stores, mobile phone stores, sports shops and online channels with broad exposure to consumers. This again testifies that their selling point is all about smart function, instead of timing telling. It meets consumers' psychological needs for sociality and services. Of course, the prerequisite is that smart watches, or wearable devices, need to have an innovative breakthrough that caters more to consumers' demands with a more independent characteristic. Experts believe that the sectors of sport, health, medical and entertainment are the directions of the future development of smart watches as people focus much more on sociality and health. This will surely create an impact on traditional watches industry if they can easily monitor heart rate, blood sugar, calorie intake, sweat analysis, and other health factors simply by sitting on your wrists. If a few friends enthusiastic about sports and health get together and one is wearing a smart watch, it is very likely that the rest will be influenced and get a smart watch, even of the same brand too.

Many IT people think that the smart watches will become a new portal for mobile internet after computers and smart phones, and lead to a comprehensive advancement of personal area network. At present, mobile phone functions as a network server as well as the input and output terminal. Smart watches can change this in the future so that smart phones will only function as a network server, and smart watches will be the input and output terminals to free up human hands. Data input can be sensed simply by swinging arms, flexing muscle and real-time monitoring of skin and sweat, while the results of the data analysis can be programmed to be presented to and alert the user in a timely way. This will revolutionize people's lifestyle.

According to the study of Transparency Market Research, health care is the most promising application of smart watches (followed by fitness and entertainment). Smart watches will bring a revolution to medical equipment industry (miniature – portability – wearability). They are not only able to closely monitor health indicators like glucose, blood pressure, heart rate, blood oxygen content, temperature, respiratory rate, etc., but also can be used to treat a variety of diseases through magnetic and electrical treatments like iontophoresis. Of course, it all depends on the support of relevant technology. In this case, smart function is indeed a broad concept relating to different industries, and smart watches are likely to bring endless possibilities to other industries.

Strictly speaking, the watch industry is a traditional industry, especially in recent decades when there has been no major revolutionary innovation but more magnification of culture and heritage in time telling. It is almost impossible to find a second commodity like watches with such exponential price difference between the high and low end, and yet each can find its position in the market. This indicates that watches are not just about luxury and taste, but cover a very wide spectrum. Therefore, be it an opportunity or challenge, we should continuously understand and integrate consumers' demands with market characteristics, and thereby, have a firm hold in an ever changing world and control the change.

怕坐飛機。尤其是長途。除了是飛的時間愈長, 出事機會愈多之外,更因為縱使給我最豪華的座 位,也是不能成眠。我的觸覺太敏鋭,只要身邊有 任何風吹草動或者溫度、濕壓有任何變化, 便會馬上甦醒。在飛機艙內要把這些自然條件維持 不變,簡直異想天開。所以在長途機上時,娛樂系 統便成了我的最好朋友。未看過的英、美劇集和電 影每每給我一掃光。錶展之後,特別是多數跟農曆 新年假期靠攏的SIHH,我例必留守歐洲躲避年關。 省回機票不打緊,最重要是省飛一趟長途,少捱來 回兩次的徹夜難眠。那些劇作、電影再刺激精彩, 也補償不了身心耗損!

但最讓我忘形的事情還是在旅途中賞錶和買錶。賞 錶不一定要到錶店和錶展,路上行也可以。無論在 國內或國外,我常常留意旁人在戴些什麼錶。總覺 得從纏腕之物已可大概瞭解人物的見識與品味。就 公共場合所見,香港可能是好錶平均出現在腕上最多的城市之首。試過在地道的冰室用膳時,視線所及便有三隻IWC之多,還未計旁邊的叔叔那只金勞和鄰桌大嬸的歐米茄。反為在鐘錶之都瑞士,腕上戴名錶的途人有限,除了錶展期間一街一巷都是的鐘錶從業員。

業外朋友詢問我最多的業內問題,就是我既定期往 瑞士,一定常常購得廉價名錶,可不可以幫他們買 這又買那!他們真是很天真和很傻。若他們的假設 成立,我們這些從業員應該早便飛黃騰達,早便不 用奔波歐亞了。我給這些朋友的公式答案是除卻個 別品牌的特別型號外,在香港的相熟店舖買錶的價 錢一般都廉宜於歐洲。香港的零售市道已經夠慘 了,大家何苦還要到國外長他人志氣呢?

話雖如此,其實我也不時在國外買錶,但大多是古 董錶。不過,人生第一隻海外購買的時計卻不是古 董,也不是腕錶,而是一座掛牆式布穀鳥鐘。那是 1996年我第三次出差巴塞爾後。有同事告訴我一些 品牌不想帶同又多又笨重的樣品離場,會在閉幕前 統統賣掉!那一刻我首先想到的是衝去當年仍是獨 立品牌的格拉蘇蒂原產,買幾隻不同款的錶玩玩。 有識者卻喝止我説那是做夢。買不到德國錶我便退 而求其次去買鐘,乃衝往一個展示黑森林鐘的 拉。那些鐘看起來隻隻差不多,我挑了擺陀款式 中最袖珍的,重量輕些,銀碼低些,且體積小巧些 較容易帶走。問題是回到香港後無論怎樣調校仍走 得不準,送人算了。現下更早忘掉送了給誰。雖然 第一次在海外購買時計並不遂順,之後仍舊樂此不 疲。

基於工作關係與及對英國文化和景觀的熱愛,曾常赴彼邦。在英國購買的老錶因此也最多。不止於英京倫敦,也在英國不同區域。但總體而言以在Nottinghill Gate的Portobello市集購買的最大量之餘,級數也最高。Camden Town這種跳蚤市場我也買過東西,但頂多是幾鎊一個的座枱鬧鐘而已,即使誤入了壞貨次貨也不覺可惜!在Portobello可不一樣,雖然未曾一擲萬金,但從幾十鎊到幾千鎊的老錶前後買過不下二十隻,其間有不少已轉讓友人,如果忽略通脹,大多除了賺了戴,更有輕微進賬。最有趣是在2000年頭在這裡先後購入了Mannesmann三子,就是朗格、積家和萬國三廠的古董錶,同一年稍後時間三家便盡歸歷峰了。

除了英國之外,德國算是我買過最多錶的國家。比 如錶面顏色又黃又紅的很美麗,內裡以Lemania曾 經大量生產但早便停製的5100自動計時機芯為心臟 的一款Sinn拯救隊限量版。品牌在本地價格高昂, 在當地卻是專供郵購而價錢特佳的好貨色。2002年 初和同事跟他們談代理權,因入貨價要求太高談不 攏,便自購上述腕錶留念。同一旅程中在法蘭克福 火車站附近的一家錶店裡竟給我遇上當年錯失的林 白時角錶90年初復刻版,有完整保養証,出世紙, 加長帶,飛機模型與及浪琴皮製公事喼一大套。用 好價購入後,高興得差不多一夜無眠。雖然這款超 大口徑的手上鍊錶襯我的纖纖玉手是橫豎看都不漂 亮的,但我愛這隻錶獨特的機芯、功能和風格。戴 不上也沒所謂。有空拿出來上上鍊已是賞心樂事! 要戴,我還有本地找到的36毫米自動版,可聊以解 悶。之前,在鄰近柏林著名景點博物館島的跳蚤市 場其實一口氣買過更多的錶。可別問我市場名字。 柏林我去過好幾次,但那市場只曾碰上一次,可能 是接著到柏林的時間都碰巧不在週末吧!市場讓人 難忘除因附近有烤腸香味撲鼻的檔攤外,那裡的東 德前朝Glashutte腕錶索價都頂便宜。在當時而言, 甚至比起在港買5號仔還划算!不過因為現金有限只 能買幾隻。到今天想起仍後悔自己沒有大刀闊斧地 入貨!2011到德累斯頓時順道看古董錶店售賣的老 Glashutte,價錢直是天壤雲泥。近年已經鮮少在德

國本土買錶,但年前和JET的金成老板再次出差德累斯頓,在市中心參觀一家專售獨立製錶人產品的零售店時,仍很有衝動買一隻Habring的單把的跳秒計時。剛好那段日子正在沉迷另一種嗜好,才勉強壓下了購買慾。

y favorite pastimes ~ music, watches, reading and travel ~ are inseparable.

I fear long-haul flight as I believe the longer the flight, the higher the chance of hiccups. I am unable to sleep due to that as well as my over-sensitivity to minute changes in the environment such as temperature and pressure which is beyond control. During these sleepless nights the entertainment system on the plane is my best friend. I devour every single drama and movie I have not watched before. In recent years I almost always take annual leaves after SIHH and spend my Chinese New Year holidays overseas so as not to fly another long haul flight in quick succession. After all, no matter how good the shows on the plane are I prefer to rest well instead.

But overseas trips can also be the best opportunities for one to do extensive reading or listen to good concerts, unless your boss or business partners have arranged too many nighttime entertainments for you. I can still recall during the seasonal buy in London for Dunhill in 1999 I had gone to the BBC Proms three evenings in a row. While in 2000 during a regional meeting with IWC in Kyoto I finished one thick novel each in Chinese and English. Gone were the days though. In my old age now I can no longer read so many words at so short a while.

In addition to the above, to admire and to buy watches during travels leave me some of my most unforgettable memories. To appreciate watches one need not necessarily go into watch stores. Simply observe the wrists of passerby on the streets. I do that even in Hong Kong and realize perhaps we have the highest density of quality watches in the world. To illustrate, once at a kaifong restaurant in Tsimshatsui I saw three guys in IWC, a waiter in gold Rolex and a Ladymatic woman next table. Even at the watch capital Switzerland, such occurrence is only possible within the few blocks of Messplatz during the time of BaselWorld.

My outsider friends always believe as an insider I can help them buy cheap watches in Switzerland but I always tell them I shall be rich if it is truly the case. Hong Kong retailers are in hell already, why not help them out? After all, for the majority of models from most of the brands, local retailers usually have better offer.

Having said that, I buy a lot of watches elsewhere, they are mostly vintage pieces though. Interestingly, my first foreign purchase was not a vintage watch but a modern clock. It was BaselWorld 1996. I heard people said some exhibitors would get rid of their stuff cheap before leaving. I intended to rush immediately to the pre-Swatch Glashutte Original but someone stopped me, calling me silly. So I went to the Black Forest booth and bought a cuckoo clock instead. Sadly, the little thing could never be calibrated properly. I gave it away to a friend afterwards.

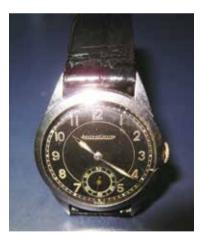

Despite an ill-fated first trial I started to buy timepieces overseas, mainly from England. I used to haunt the Portobello Market and Camden Town almost every time I am in England, especially the former. For Camden I had spent only a few pounds on alarm clocks but was rather generous at Portobello. In early 2000, right before the Mannesmann's trio of IWC, Jaeger LeCoultre and A. Lange were sold to Richemont, I had purchased there one specimen each of the three brands!

Besides England, I bought also quite a few watches from Germany. The most memorable one is a limited edition piece by Sinn with a colourful dial which was equipped with the once popular automatic caliber C.5100 produced by Lemania. I met them to try to negotiate for their distribution but sadly, we could not agree on the purchase price. So instead of having me as their partner I bought that watch and became a customer. On the way back to my hotel near the Frankfurt train station the same evening, I spotted an unworn 90s reedition of Lindbergh with everything intact. As the asking price was reasonable I jumped into the shop to get it without second thought. The gigantic watch is a stunning beauty but my slim wrist cannot carry it handsomely. It is however fun to take it out from time to time just to wind up and watch. For wearing I have an automatic version of 36mm only. I had actually acquired more watches in Berlin previously from a flea market near the Museum Island. But I forgot the exact location as I had been there only once. Anyway their old Glashutte watches were dirt cheap then. I regretted not buying in bulk. Every watch cost only a few hundred Hong Kong dollars, even less expensive than Seiko 5. Three years ago in Dresden I discovered the same species almost 10 times more expensive. After the Berlin experience I rarely bought in Germany again but last October when I went with Kamshing, the Publisher of JET, into a shop for independent watches in the heart of Dresden old town a Harbring chronograph with jumping seconds was so alluring that I almost could not resist its temptation. But I was then indulged in some other lavish interest and had no money to spare.

Apart from Germany and England I have found goodies from such diversified countries as Japan, Holland, Czech, Hungary, or even China. I never research on where to buy antique watches beforehand but when I stroll into the nostalgic streets and historical squares of their old towns I always walk unintentionally into vintage watch stores. For good memories I am more at ease to spend on watches. Sadly Portobello is now packed with counterfeits and overpriced items. While I still go there, I visit it mainly for foodstuff and books but avoid watches like the plaque.

You may wonder why I wrote a travelogue-like article instead of commentaries on the current watch scene. Everyone knows the luxury market, especially jewelry and watches, is currently at its trough. You may read the latest product news from the magazines of the few contributing writers to this guide. Instead of repeating the sad story I would like to look upon the bright side. Certainly travel holidays and buying watches the world over is more fun and positive. Don't you agree?

場狀況總會無可避免會有升跌,而且慣常地 亦會不定期發生。市況的波動沒有規律,我 們既不能阻止它的發生,亦沒有能力控制、改變或 預測它的時間表,所以不應過分擔心而是要採取積 極態度面對。近日由於市場已步入了不明朗下行周 期,而面對著風險,近日周邊話題都總是被負面情 緒所圍困,悲觀的一派更加預計今年第三四季經營 只會更加艱難。但既然經濟下行是一種無法避免的 正常現象,那我們與其擔心何不積極面對和對抗 呢!站在個人立場,無論市況怎樣相信總差不過十 年前的沙士一役。雖然這只是純粹我個人對市況一 種樂觀的猜測,究竟現時市況是否已到了谷底還是 真的將會步入零售業冰河時期仍言之尚早,皆因市 場上確實存在不明朗因素,當中包括內部政治,國 與國之間的糾紛、消費者信心等問題,都直接或間 接影響到消費意欲,形成供過於求的市場現象。

剔除任何政治因素,相比過往最大的差別是結構上正在面對的高成本經營環境問題。今天基於高租金,加上政策上有最低工資立法,甚至一些外部問題如滙率波動等因素,都直接為營商者增加不少沉重負擔壓力。其中以我們的鐘表零售業影響最為明顯,皆因為確保經營競爭力,理所當然過去數年大型零售品牌均紛紛於旺區份不段開設分店,甚致出現同一品牌於同一街道開設多間店鋪以擴充業務及增強同業競爭能力,但由於旺區份租金已高至極不合理水平,令到業務在擴充的同時也要面對很大的成本風險。租金高企有說是部份大戶業主的財技手法引致,也有的認為業主採取殺雞取卵做法,皆因

業主為保障個人投資,均會用盡方法去保持物業本 身在銀行抵押價值,於是甚致情願把單位空置,繼 續以高叫價放租放售,令租金難有大幅下調空間。 在香港這個商業主導的城市,特色是除了市場變化 速度極快之餘,自我調節能力方面亦比其它亞太地 區強,以我們多年來有著一種打不死的精神,相信 就算市況有多壞,以多年來不論七十年代、八七 年、九七年、以至到最近期零八年的股災為例, 均能反影出香港人對於極境求存的一份獨有精神。 在過去的一年間由於工作關係,我相對比以往純粹 因為購物接觸到更多鐘表零售界的前線從業員。較 以往不同的是店員除了愈來愈年青化外,我最欣賞 和印象深刻的是他/她們大部份不單只對鐘表認識愈 來愈深厚之餘,亦每每在閒談內容中感受到他們對 行業的一份尊重和認真態度,部份甚致超越了視工 作為職業甚至只建基於金錢之上,有部份更會在工 作過後花時間和金錢務求自我增值,從網上及書籍 之中吸取更多鐘表知識之外,有的更加透過購入不 同型號機芯去學習裝拆機芯。這種敬業樂業精神, 正好就是鐘表業界最需要引入的未來發展元素。我 們之所以需要工作,並非單純賺錢養家或者是要滿 足物質慾望。能夠從工作中找到樂趣,甚至享受工 作的往往我認為就是勞動人口之中最幸福的一群。 有説知識能改寫命運,對我而言我會說是鐘表改寫 命運。皆因自從高中年代開始對鐘表產生興趣,至 投身社會均每每把大部份工資奉獻給鐘表。甚至放 棄原來的工程師工作投身表評行業,到2003年創辦

「游絲腕表雜誌丨,鐘表不折不扣改寫了我的事 途。雖然我喜歡及接觸鐘表多年,買表亦經歷過 交學費階段,亦曾經在揀撰路間上迷失方向,甚至 曾有厭倦買表的時候,但隨著市場不斷出現一些極 具有吸引性的新產品,亦令我重拾對鐘表的興趣。 在鐘表消費層面上,我認為近十多年間最大的轉變 是鐘表由原來大多以欣賞角度價值主導,演變至今 時今日逐漸被一份以名貴包裝作為招來的風氣所取 代。而且銷售價格方面,雖然上調確實必然,但每 當比對新舊價格便會得知上調幅度相當驚人。舉例 一枚某品牌的年曆表,九九年折合不用九萬元,今 時今日同一型號在外形到機械上沒有大改動的情況 下定價卻超越三十萬水平來看,升幅之高對比絕多 數投資產品回報還要高。相比十年前鐘表市場的市 佔率亦已錄得相當驚人升幅,不論是資深的消費 者,以至到一些對鐘表毫無認知的買家來說,腕表 彷彿除成為了一種既很個人化、亦很有崇高地位的 消費品外,亦可説是一種保本投資。我經常亦會以 吸毒去比喻買表,因為一旦你買了第一枚,就會買 第二枚、第三枚…接著亦會愈買愈貴。於是購買上 我一般都會建議買家(尤其是初哥)先行揀選一些入門 款式,再以漸進方式去買其它更高層次產品,這樣 才能夠從中享受到一份真正樂趣,否則一買便是最 名貴的款式,你就會忽略了擁有基本簡單型號的一 份享受樂趣。

n our free market today, "fluctuation" is the one thing that we can't avoid. Market fluctuation is classified as some kind of self-adjustment mechanism which doesn't exactly happen on a regular basis and being unpredictable. We can neither stop it from coming nor gain control of it. So don't panic. Recently, as we are facing a down trend situation, daily conversations are mostly surrounded by negative emotion and often linked to frustration since we can't foresee future outcome. From a pessimistic angle, it has been predicted market will only continue to worsen towards the end of this year. However, let us think positively. I think no matter how bad the market may turn out to be, if we can keep our positive attitude towards problems, we shall be able to overcome anything just like we did in the past. When we think back during SARS period just over 10 years ago, though some say it was only a short-term affect, comparing to our current market situation which has been caused by more complex factors such as internal / external political and policies concerns, SARS seems to be much easier to cope with and was easily recovered from shortly after. Though we can't foresee market trend or whether we have reached the bottom, the existence of uncertainties will by all means directly or indirectly affect consumer sentiments which will further aggravate the supply over demand situation.

Regardless of political concerns, no doubt one of the core structural problems of Hong Kong has been blamed on its high property value policy. It has progressively affected every business, especially for watch retail businesses which face not only high rental cost, but high overheads plus fluctuations of currency exchange rates, making their operations more difficult than ever before. Of course all businesses need expansion via continuous growing, even when facing high operating cost as sales turnover is important. Therefore even with extremely high rental cost, opening shops in prime areas has became a must for retailers. However, as most of these prime area premises are owned by both private and institutional investors who concern mainly with their rate of return, and for some, their premises' market value due to mortgage concerns, they sometimes rather let premises vacant than lowering price to protect their investment value. Such root of problem in Hong Kong cannot be described nor resolved by a few words, yet the traits of Hong Kong as a fast growing city, its self-regulating mechanism and capability have always been an advantage allowing it to be internationally renowned within Asia region. Regardless of financial crisis that we have faced during the 70s, in 1987, 1997 and most recently 2008, our unbeatable spirit has always guided us to a better future.

Talking about our watch retail businesses, interesting to know as I have been having more contacts with front line staffs particularly during the past 12 months, I have noticed not only these retail sales are becoming younger in generation but what impressed me most is that quite a number of these Y-generation apart from being technically knowledgeable, has been very sincere towards working as the keys between brands and consumers in the watch industry. Their respect and seriousness, willingness of continual learning have even made me feel that they are treating their job more than just salary driven. In order for our watch industry to sustain and continue to grow, these "passion" will be exactly what we need for our future. Regardless of making our livings, earning for material needs or even simply for satisfaction achievement, the term "mixing work with pleasure" should always be kept in our mind. Work, apart from being part of our life, should also be treated as something that we enjoy, something we do appreciate and treasure.

Some say knowledge can change a person's life. To me, it's watches that changed my life. Recalling from the first watch that I owned when I was at high school, to later spending most of my salaries on watches, till giving up my engineering title and coincidentally turning into a watch critic, followed by founding "Spiral" magazine in 2003, watches have really changed my life. I have been in love with watches for years, and regardless of some bad experiences that I have gone through, watches have become, apart from an important element towards my career life, my major hobby. The best thing about watches is that from time to time their new product designs often give consumers surprises via continuous developments. Comparatively, though market trend has changed tremendously over the past decades, watches' existence value has turned from practical and appreciation driven into mostly packaged as luxury consumer goods these days. It is understandable as in terms of quality, watch makings have been mostly benefitted from manufacturing technological improvement.

From retail price point of view, though price increments have been inevitable, if we look back and compare the price differences between now and say ten years back, the prices have as much as doubled or even tripled, which is honestly guite scary. For instance, a certain rose gold annual calendar which cost less than ninety thousands in 1999 is now retailing at over three hundred thousand these days, which gave higher return in their values compared to some blue-chips. Over the past decade, luxury watches' market shares have recorded a tremendous growth. From knowledgeable consumers to beginners in the market, watches have become personalized and high self-value belongings. To me, watches are just like "drugs" - once you started buying, shopping activities will endlessly continue due to arrival of new irresistible products. Some say selecting watches should base on whether they are value for money. Some say it should be based on retaining value. Others see watches as personal belongings and that they need to be unique and outstanding. Regardless of the consumer types you belong to, most importantly is to place yourself on the right track, stay focus with the right attitude by selecting watches based on personal preferences rather than trend or resale value driven. This will ensure you to enjoy the most out of your watches. Besides, we should begin from basic, which means starting from something simple, then sequentially move upwards to small complications, semi-complications and eventually high complications so that enjoyment period can be maximized in return and that a good knowledge foundation can be established. Otherwise, if you start from high level entry, you will simply be missing the fun from enjoying some good basic models in the market.

Starting from a layman till now, I have been into watches for almost 30 years. From traditional brands such as Patek Philippe, Vacheron Constantin, Jaeger-LeCoultre, IWC, Audemars Piguet, to newer independent brands such as MB&F, H. Moser, F.P. Journe, ochs und junior, etc., I have had numerous opportunities and experiences with have undeniably helped me to gain valuable judging knowledge, plus capability to tell the differences between good or bad. I must however mention that what makes a quality watch cannot simply be judged by its price tag nor how complicated it is, but instead on its overall quality and services offered. That's why I must admit that my recent personal taste on watches has changed. Apart from my favourite vintage wrist and pocket watches as well as various traditional and modern brands, I found myself turning back to the basic of buying post-70s Rolex watches again. For very simple reasons: though Rolex prices like most Swiss brands on average have increased by quite a huge amount over the past decade, I think Rolex has been providing consumers apart from durable products, their strategies, reliability, quality and efficient after sales services. All these have earned them a good reputation to the extent that some consumers have even concluded Rolex being the most value for money brand in the market. Needless to say, I am not trying to deny the quality and existence of other brands but generally the overall value for money products and services that Rolex is still providing customers these days should be appreciated and paid a tribute to.

變形金剛陀飛輪、Swarovski 水晶手表,成功授權例子俯拾皆是!香港鎮通國際行政總裁繆家濤(Karl)表示,出口放緩,生產成本增加,近年不少中小企紛紛透過「香港國際授權展」,物色品牌授權機遇,藉以提升利潤及競爭力:「品牌授權有『借力打力』之效,勢成中小企轉型升級的捷徑之一。」

從事品牌授權、生產及零售等業務超過30年的 Karl,早於上世紀80年代,主力貿易及生產生意,1992年至1997年成為Gucci手表中國總代理, 其後專注品牌授權業務,現時正參與數個品牌的手 表授權項目。

賣品牌非賣產品時代

他説:「時代變了,以前販賣產品,變成現時販賣品牌,不少OEM廠渴望發展品牌,走出瓶頸。」與其他中小企一樣,鐘表業廠家面對利潤下滑的情況,急謀轉型升級對策,期望透過經營品牌,扭轉形勢。

不過,經營品牌有四大商業模式,包括自創品牌、 代理、特許經營及授權,廠家應如何衡量?Karl逐

一拆解利弊:「自創品牌是長遠投資,宣傳費用驚人,尤如倒錢落海,要花較長時間才能被消費者認同!」

他續說,代理及特許經營方面,雖然兩者都可令廠家實時擁有一個喜愛該品牌的消費群,但面對不少風險,例如滿足最低購貨額、入貨成本高等,最令人擔的是,當品牌及市場成熟後,品牌持有人可能會取消代理權,自行營運:「代理商等於幫人湊仔般,最終未能分享成果!

「品牌授權可解決以上方法缺點!」Karl解釋,廠家透過授權經營品牌,不需要投放大量資金及時間,同時可學習知名品牌的經營模式,逐步由OEM轉型升級至OBM,開拓新市場。

由於品牌授權形式,廠家同時掌握貨源生產,即使市場或品牌成熟,品牌持有人取消授權,自行經營的機會較低。Karl以當年Gucci手表授權例子進一步闡述:「1972年 Severin Montres (SM) 公司獲得Gucci 授權,生產及零售旗下手表,不過每逢接近約滿,SM公司都感覺Gucci希望取消其手表授權,轉回自行經營;幸而,作為被授權商的SM公司,由於控制了Gucci手表的生產貨源,若Gucci貿然取消其授權合作,或引發SM公司低價散貨的風險,最終1998年Gucci公司願意以1.5億美元收購SM公司。上

他指出:「近年愈來愈多企業對品牌授權感興趣,藉此快速開拓新市場。」數據顯示,過去10年,全球授權產品零售額穩步上升,2013年更突破1,550億美元。

香港國際授權展覓商機

他相信,品牌授權對廠家及錶商來說,仍然方興未艾,發展潛力龐大,例如本地品牌萬希泉Memorigin推出變形金剛陀飛輪手表,零售價可達4.2 萬港元:「香港國際授權展內集合時裝、娛樂及動漫品牌、名人、運動、大學、生活及藝術等品牌,這些都是鐘表商的授權對象,值得密切留意。」Karl表示歡迎有志發展授權的廠家與他聯絡,進一步了解授權商機;而Karl亦將繼續於2015年香港國際授權展參展,廠家可到他的攤位交流相關經驗。

另外,亞洲授權業會議是一個聚焦亞洲的國際授權 業會議,匯聚環球頂級授權業人士及亞洲企業家, 上屆便匯聚超過30位來自國際知名品牌包括來自美 泰兒(Mattel)、法拉利、及NBA等的演講嘉賓現身, 向業界分享具前膽性的亞洲授權發展趨勢及商機。

2015年亞洲授權業會議將於1月12至13日於灣仔會 展舉行,當中主題分組會議環節,題目將環繞四大 範疇,包括時裝、生活時尚、玩樂與學習、零售與

香港國際授權展是亞洲區內最大型的授權業展覽,匯 聚了超過 230 家來自 19 個國家和地區的參展商,展 出逾 700 個品牌和授權項目。 一年一度的亞洲授權業會議為區內最大型的授權業會 議,2014 年吸引了超過 1,200 名來自 26 個國家及地 區的與會者。 市場推廣。會議第二日更設立授權工作坊,由專家現場為OEM廠家分享成為被授權商的秘訣及轉型升級的心得,機會難逢!貿發局將為香港鐘表業總會會員提供與會優惠和商貿配對服務,欲獲取更多資訊,請致電或電郵查詢,或瀏覽http://www.hktdc.com/hklicensingshow及http://www.hktdc.com/asianlicensingconference。

邀創始人出席發布會 品牌推廣好蹺

Karl除了協助廠家尋覓品牌授權機會之外,還專責品牌策劃、品牌宣傳、企業形象設計、公關活動企劃等顧問工作。他建議,在品牌推廣方面,舉行發佈會和邀請品牌創始人或設計師出席是最有效的推廣方法之一!

釣魚台國賓館辦發佈會

他提到,1997年曾為意大利品牌GIOVANNI VALENTINO 於內地拓展授權業務,當時邀請 Giovanni Valentino本人、意大利國會議員、各 地領事代表等出席於北京釣魚台國賓館舉行的 發佈會, 成功快速提升品牌知名度,增加零售 商的信心。

在COGU品牌推廣方面,Karl表示,當時亦曾邀請創始人Cosimo Gucci 到香港、上海、台北和大阪舉行發佈會,接受傳媒訪問,增加曝光率。

滿腦子創意的Karl, 還懂得選擇在日本東京的英國领事馆舉行The Royal Touch 發佈會,Carolyn Robb亦親自接受傳媒訪問,從而確立她出自英國皇室的形象,其推廣好蹺絕對值得中小企借鏡。

THE CATCHER 守望者

Contestant 參賽者: LEUNG HO HIM 梁浩謙

(Sponsoring Company 贊助公司: MZB World Time Limited)

When you were young, you looked forward to travelling abroad and seeing the world away from home. As time goes by, you start missing your home, family and loved ones.

The CATCHER is inspired by the concept of nostalgia. It is a GMT function dual-time watch. The globe on the watch display is divided into 24 time zones. By simply adjusting the watch to the local time zone, the reflector ring will turn accordingly, enabling you to read both the local and hometown time on one watch. No matter where you are, The CATCHER brings you and your home together.

年青人一直憧憬到外國見識,體驗各地文化。時日飛逝,隨著人慢慢成長,事業開始發展,到外地公幹的機會亦增加。在外地辛勞工作一天過後,從前的興奮心情漸漸被思念所取代,開始想念遠在家鄉的家人及至愛,總在不停想像:他們正在做什麼?近況如何?

「守望者」的靈感來自「思念」,表面上的地球劃分了24個時區;當你身在外地時,只要把時區調教至當地時間,表面上的字盤亦隨即轉動,讓你同時知道當地及原住的時間。不管身在何方,「守望者」都能將你與你的至愛連繫在一起。

ROROTA 極

Contestant 參賽者: LI KA SING 李嘉聲

(Sponsoring Company 贊助公司: FDT Limited)

Sharing is the first step to success. Interacting and sharing experience with the others helps you grow and build your social network, and introduce you to new perspectives and unexpected opportunities.

ROROTA is inspired by the concept of sharing. Its built-in bearing keeps "6" at the bottom of the face no matter how the users move. Everyone from any direction could then "share" the watch and check the time. The Chinese ancient philosophical concept of "Tai Chi", which stands for the creation of universe, is also applied in the design of dial to dedicate the message of "The World In Your Hand".

成功人士的秘訣除了在於如何掌握和運用時間,還在於懂 得分享。

分享是邁向成功的第一步:與人交流、分享經驗,可以改善善自己的不足,學習別人的優點。分享亦可助你建立人際關係,擴展社交網絡,為你帶來意想不到的機遇。

「極」的設計意念同樣源於「分享」。手表內置了軸承系統,讓表面的數字隨著用家揮動而改變方向,不論如何倒置轉動手表,六時都永遠向下,方便向身旁友人展示時間。表面設計亦注入了太極元素,象徵操控萬物之源盡在手中。

Explorer 先機

Contestant 參賽者:TANG SIU HUNG 鄧少雄

(Sponsoring Company 贊助公司: Beijing Time100 E-commerce Co., Ltd 北京時光一百電子商務有限公司)

The theme of Explorer is "Controlling the World". It is equipped with the GMT function and could be adjusted to different time zones, standing for the ambition of ruling the world.

Reference to the globe is applied to the display when designing the watch. This represents every successful businessman has his or her own globe in mind, and is always ready to take over the world.

「先機」以「掌控世界」為設計概念,擁有顯示世界時區功能,附設可轉內映圈,讓用家隨時調節至世界各地不同時區,象徵掌控世界的雄心。手表殼身的設計加入地球儀元素,代表每個成功的商家心中都有屬於自己的地球儀,隨時準備掌控世界。

School 院校: School of Continuing and Professional Studies, The Chinese University of Hong Kong

香港中文大學專業進修學院

"Essence" is created to let you stay true to yourself.

This watch is unlike the smart watches being advertised on TV. It is neither simply a messenger nor a missed call viewer. Essence is a watch which demonstrates your own attitude towards life and reminds you of your own stance.

Be yourself, live at your own pace and never let the essence of your life slip away.

隨着世代變遷、科技發展,人容易變得隨波逐流,本來純潔美好的本質亦因而褪色。人,甚至失去了自我。

「本質」的設計人性化,不但 顯示時間而誕生,更 提醒我們要無時無刻保持本質而存在。

保持態度,保持風格;擁有本質、擁有生活,擁有自我。
